Ike Calls Meet On Suez Crisis

Demo, GOP Congress Leaders Summoned To White House On Eve Of Convention

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower late Thursday invited Democratic and Republican leaders of Congress to confer at the White House Sunday on the Suez Canal crisis.

It had earlier been planned to have this discussion at the State Department, but Eisenhower gave it added importance by shifting the meeting to the White House with himself in attendance.

The meeting comes on the eve of the Democratic national convention in Chicago.

Underlining the importance attached to the gathering, Senate Democratic leader Johnson of Texas and House speaker Rayburn arranged to make the trip from Chicago back to Washington.

Johnson and Rayburn sent in their acceptances on the basis of earlier plans to have the meeting at the State Department.

Invited

The text of the White House announcement:

"The President has invited the bipartisan leadership of Congress to a meeting on the Suez Canal situation at the White House at noon Sunday.

"Secretary of State Dulles, Vice President Nixon and Adm. Arthur Radford will also be there.

"This is the briefing session for the congressional leaders scheduled earlier today to be held Sunday at the State Department.

"The President after consultation late this afternoon with Mr. Dulles decided it was appropriate to have the meeting at the White House. It will be held in the cabinet room.

Both Houses

"Those invited include Sen. Majority leader Johnson, Sen. George (D-Ga), minority leader Knowland, speaker Rayburn, minority leader Martin and members of the Foreign Relations Committee in the Senate Foreign Affairs in the House and Armed Services Committees of both houses."

Dulles had scheduled the meeting in an obvious bid to win broad bipartisan support for policies he will pursue in London at the emergency international conference next Thursday, dealing with Egypt's seizure of the canal.

Urgent Session

LONDON (INS) — The Western allies consulted urgently Thursday night after Russia accepted an invitation to the London conference on the Suez crisis but urged that the starting date be delayed and that 22 other countries be invited.

There was no immediate indication whether Russia would rescind. Its acceptance if—as was believed all but certain—her demands were not met by the United States, Britain and France.

The diplomatic flurry came as Egypt—which is expected to reply to the big three bid Sunday—called a million volunteers to train for the defense of the country. At the same time, Britain put off its airlift to the canal area while other military strategy was being considered.

No Authority

These were the chief developments in the crisis over the canal:

1. Russia said the 24-power conference called by the Big Three to meet Aug. 16 "cannot in any way be regarded as an international meeting authorized to take any decisions whatever affecting the Suez Canal."

2. President Eisenhower met with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and the National Security Council. The President called a special bipartisan meeting of congressional leaders to discuss the crisis with him Sunday.

Averell Hits Ike 'Failure'

No Desegregation Leadership Seen By Harriman

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Averell Harriman won applause from a Negro audience Thursday night in a speech accusing President Eisenhower of failing to exercise leadership on the desegregation problem.

"Eisenhower is blocking progress in the middle of the road," said the New York candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination. "We must push him out of it."

Harriman addressed about 1,000 persons at the 50th annual convention of the Alpha Phi Alpha college fraternity, founded at Cornell University. The fraternity now has about 25,000 members, most of them Negro.

The fraternity gave Harriman a plaque for "outstanding contribution in the field of human relations and his uncompromising stand on first-class citizenship for all mankind."

No Mention

Harriman, due in Chicago by plane Friday for the Democratic National Convention starting Monday, made no mention by name of Adlai Stevenson, the front runner for the nomination.

But he renewed his attacks on "moderation" as a policy that would lead to defeat. The Harriman forces have used the term "moderate" in reference to Stevenson.

Harriman said the people knew where he himself stood on the question of desegregation.

"I have made it clear by my words and my acts," he said.

'Law of Land'

He declared the Supreme Court decisions on segregation "are the law of the land" and added:

"President Eisenhower has failed utterly to exercise leadership in this matter.

"During two years of default, he permitted a vacuum to develop which extremists proceeded to fill.

"If he had, for example, called together men and women of good will, of different backgrounds and from different parts of the country, and asked them to work together. . . . many of the tensions and emotions that have developed, in the North as well as the South, would not have arisen.

From Ornate Punch Bowls To Ordinary Trays:

300 Items From Mansion Auctioned

By RICHARD FELLMAN
Star Staff Writer

"Who'll bid one, one, now two? Two, now three? Two and a half, now three? Three and a half, three and a half, now four? Four? Four? Sold, for three and a half."

So it went Thursday evening at the Governor's Mansion, until the auctioneer had knocked down to the highest bidder all the furnishings that will not be wanted for the new mansion or being sent to the State Historical Society.

Buyers, potential buyers, speculators and spectators of all makes and descriptions kept close watch on the auctioneers and each and every price. Action was fast, with the auctioneers moving items quickly over "the block." All in all nearly 300 items were sold.

As far as anybody can remember, the auction was the only one of its type in Nebraska. Items up for sale ranged from simple every-day serving trays to ornate punch bowls, solid walnut chairs and the desk of former Nebraska governors.

Prices ranged from 25 cents to way over $25, the highest price paid for the rugs from the mansion's living room which brought $160. Some things seemed to have caught the fancy of the crowd and went up, up, up and up. Others? well, even the auctioneer had difficulty sounding enthusiastic over them. But they all sold!

At the outset, the audience seemed to be mostly Thursday night shoppers. Later, it changed to include many men and women who came down after supper "just to see what was happening." And, as one woman added: "to pick up a bargain, but don't tell my husband."

Among the many, and for the most part lost in the crowd, were Gov. and Mrs. Victor Anderson and former Gov. and Mrs. Robert Crosby.

One could hear comments such as the one from the woman who kept bidding while whispering to her husband (all at one time), "I just don't know where we'll put that, but . . ."

And there was the man who sat sullenly, tersely commenting "why that chair has been re-painted, re-upholstered, re-finished- re-turned, re-this and re-that!" But through it all, stout citizens of Nebraska kept on coming and the auctioneers kept moving right around the established path of sale.

Nebraska history went the way of all old furniture, and souvenirs could be had for the asking. If somebody didn't want to buy junk, he or she could send a letter to Gov. Anderson and receive, for just the price of a self-addressed stamped envelope, a chunk of wallpaper from the historic old house.

The Mansion and all the items for sale had been on display since Monday. The public could roam through the building at will, and they did, no count being taken as to how many entered or left. Opinions regarding the number at the auction varied, but guesses ranged all the way from a conservative 300 to an indulgent 1,000.

All the items sold were the remains after the decorators for the planned colonial - type mansion went through and selected all pieces considered appropriate for the new building.

Governor's Mansion Items Sold

Furnishings at the Governor's Mansion which are no longer wanted for the new mansion or the State Historical Society were sold at public auction which was attended by some 300-1,000 curious "shoppers." ## Chiefs 'Flunkie' Don Rowe Stops Amarillo With No Hits

"I'm particularly proud of Don because he's one of my 'flunkies!' "

That's the way Lincoln Manager Larry Shepard put it after Don Rowe, Lincoln lefthander, hurled a 1-0 no-hitter against Amarillo Thursday night.

Larry was referring to a letter he received from a local fan recently which referred to Larry himself and several other Chief pitchers as "flunkies."

"A 'flunkie' came through in that game," Shepard laughed.

Rowe immediately bought a case of pop for his teammates between games — with a five dollar bill a happy fan had stuck in his hand as he walked off the field.

"I was just throwing everything and they all were good, I guess," Don said after hurling the first no-hitter of his career.

His battery mate, Joe Zavattaro—who also caught a no-hitter last year — was still trying to figure out what happened.

"That's the second no-hitter I've caught and both times I didn't know the pitcher was working on one," he said. "I just didn't realize that nobody had gotten a hit."

But Joe had the explanation for the fine mound job by Rowe.

"His curve ball was great and when it's working he can beat anybody," he said. "Recently, his curve has been bad and they (opponents) would wait for his fast ball and tag him. But he had them swinging on the curve today."

Details on Rowe's no hitter and the second game in The Star Sports Section, Page 15.

'FEWER SNIFFLES, SNEEZES DUE TO DROUGHT'—DOCTOR

A prominent Lincoln physician said Thursday this summer's drought is making it easier on hay fever sufferers.

The hay fever "season," he said, starts in late July and reaches its peak in mid-August. The doctor said he hadn't had many complaints yet from the 150 persons he treats for allergies.

He added he doubted if allergic persons will be bothered much this year due to the unusually dry weather. Many persons suffer from hay fever until the season's first frost.

The local doctor said he believes allergy tests followed by inoculations offer the allergic person the best chance for relief. He termed eastern Nebraska a "hot spot" for allergic persons. The main weeds which trouble allergic persons, he said, are hemp, ragweed and "tumbling weed."

Stevenson, Harriman Both Hope For His Nod

. . . Adlai Still Sets Pace In Race For Delegates

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

CHICAGO (AP) — Harry S. Truman moved in Thursday on the political arena where Adlai E. Stevenson is setting the pace toward the Democratic presidential nomination. Truman reached promptly for a key role in the kingmaking.

The former President, calling himself a live politician and not an elder statesman, picked a Sunday deadline for disclosing his own preference for the party nomination. The Democratic National Convention opens the next day.

Whether the choice will be Stevenson or somebody else, Truman wasn't saying now. Nor were there any assurances Truman had the power to switch the convention in another direction even if he wanted to. By every count, Stevenson has far more delegates lined up than anybody else.

Steady Procession

Stevenson and his supporters, as well as top men from the camp of Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, passed in and out of Truman headquarters.

No emissaries showed up, however, from the entourage of the only other avowed candidate for the nomination, Gov. A. B. (Happy) Chandler of Kentucky.

And nobody left Truman's presence professing to know on whom the former President's political favor will be bestowed.

Truman took time out for a news conference and an appearance before the Democratic Platform Committee. There he took what some Southerners said with a touch of appreciation in their voice was a moderate stand on the troublesome civil rights issue.

Southerners Confer

A band of Southerners seeking to bar adoption of a civil rights plank unacceptable to Dixie gathered Thursday night with their leader, Gov. James P. Coleman of Mississippi.

Fifteen or 20 of them assembled at the Palmer House in the room of Camille F. Gravel Jr., Democratic national committeeman from Louisiana. Coleman was there, along with Gov. Earl K. Long of Louisiana, Sen. Sam Ervin of North Carolina and others.

Gravel is pro-Stevenson.

Truman told his news conference he hopes and expects to announce his choice for the presidential nomination before Sunday.

In the next few days, Truman said, he intends to collect more information and "see as many people as possible" — probably "all the candidates and all the has-been candidates, too."

Will "Let People Know"

Then he intends to lay a figurative hand on somebody's shoulder and "let the people know for whom I stand."

On one thing, he was positive. At 72, he isn't a candidate, himsellf. And he said he would say "no" to any draft.

Truman specifically declined to say whether he was for or against Stevenson.

Nor would he say at his news conference whether he thought the party platform should carry full endorsement, as Stevenson proposed Tuesday night, of the Supreme Court decision outlawing racial segregation in public schools. Truman did say the platform should be "very specific and plain on civil rights."

Foresees No Split

No, he said, he doesn't see what one reporter called the "danger of a Democratic split over the civil rights issue."

Also tuning up in a key of harmony was the only out-in-the-open candidate for the vice presidential nomination, Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota.

A Stevenson supporter who is willing to take the No. 2 spot with anybody, Humphrey told a news conference the civil rights issue is principally a matter of methods—a problem that "exists in all sections and involves all minorities," rather than a sectional issue.

Truman Has His Say

Former President Harry S. Truman, full of enthusiasm, says he might have a choice for the Democratic presidential nomination by Sunday as he conducts a press conference in Chicago. The Missourian told reporters there is only an outside chance he won't be able to make up his mind in the contest where Adlai E. Stevenson and Gov. Averell Harriman of New York are top contenders. ## Old Champ Back Full Of Fight

By ARTHUR EDSON

CHICAGO (AP)—The old champ came back to the political wars Thursday, and right off you could see that there's a lot of fight—and a lot of fun—in the old boy yet.

From the moment Harry S. Truman hit town, the buildup for the Democratic National Convention seemed to get a badly needed shot in the arm.

Take his arrival. Truman's train got in at 8:30 a.m., an indecent hour for most late-rising, politicians, reporters and photographers. Yet there were more than 100 trying to crowd into a space that would accommodate only 25 easily.

The early birds included:

Adlai Stevenson, who hopes Truman will grin at him and say, "Adlai, you're my boy." (When a reporter complained of the hour, Stevenson said he had had to pack, make plans to buy a new ram for his farm, and drive in from his home in suburban Libertyville. "I've already put in a full day," he said.)

For all this effort, all Stevenson got was a warm handclasp.

Supporters of Averell Harriman, also are hoping for an approving nod. They got a handclasp, too.

And there were photographers and reporters trying to get near enough to see and hear, amid noise and bustle and confusion.

To a former president, this is like old times, and Truman moved happily through it. About the only visitor who seemed completely satisfied was a Pullman porter who leaned out of the train and yelled: "Hi, boss!"

"Hi, there!" said Truman, and shook his hand.

Then the show moved to the more sumptuous surroundings of the Sheraton Blackstone Hotel, to what some comic had labelled a news conference.

There wasn't enough hard news there to fill a thimble, but because Truman was having such a good time you couldn't ask for a more enjoyable 25 minutes.

Reporters tried every which way to get him to say whom he would like for president, but all they got was a first name greeting, a big grin and a neat job of fending off their questions.

Much of Truman's time was spent kidding the reporters.

Possibly the biggest laugh came when a man in the rear got Truman's attention and said:

"I'm H. V. Kaltenborn." The name produced memories that evoked a gale of laughter.

For Truman once did a takeoff on the way Kaltenborn, a news commentator, described the election the night Thomas E. Dewey went down to defeat.

"Well, how are you?" Truman said.

Kaltenborn joined in the laughter, and when it died down, said: "I'm fine and I see you are, too."

More Rain, Storms Set For Friday

Scattered showers and thunderstorms were forecast for Nebraska Friday following widespread thundershower activity in the state Thursday night.

The storms were to develop in the western part of the state Friday afternoon and then move across the state during the night, according to the Weather Bureau.

Columbus reported nearly two inches of rain Thursday night.

Rain in the west Thursday brought .60 inch precipitation at Sidney, .34 inch at North Platte, .29 inch at Valentine, .26 inch at Burwell, .16 inch at Imperial and a trace at Chadron.

Brief showers Thursday night brought .01 inch at Omaha and a trace at Lincoln.

Thunderstorms in the Norfolk area brought three separate showers, but only a trace of rain.

At Humphrey several light poles were struck by lightning and caught fire. The Consumers Public Power District reported the Humphrey lines were repaired quickly.

Sharp electrical activity was reported by the Weather Bureau throughout the storm area.

A Falls City man was electrocuted Thursday when he touched a live wire while cleaning up debris from Wednesday night's storm.

A severe wind storm at Centerville, Ia., caused one injury and blocked a highway late Wednesday night.

One citizen reportedly suffered a broken arm and Highway 60 north of Centerville was blocked. All lights and telephone service were out until morning due to lines being blown down.

Some houses suffered minor damage from falling trees and a shed-type building was unroofed. A State Highway patrol car, the first to report the storm and damage, was blown off the road.

County Levy May Be Cut To 5.70 Mills

The 1956 levy for Lancaster County may be reduced to 5.70 mills, The Star learned Thursday.

The County Board at a meeting Friday morning is expected to announce final budget figures and set a levy.

Last year's levy of 5.83 mills raised $1,069,863.26 for the 1955-56 fiscal year.

If a 5.70 mill levy is set, approximately $1,100,308 would be raised on an assessed valuation of $193,036,605, representing a $9.5 million valuation increase from last year.

National Bank Is Sought

First National Head Among Signers On Federal Application

Several persons connected with the First National Bank of Lincoln have submitted an application for a new national bank. Prospective location is the proposed shopping center area at Cotner Blvd. and O St.

Burnham Yates, president of First National, was among the signers of the application which was sent to the office of the U.S. comptroller of currency.

No action will be taken on the application for at least several weeks. Investigations must be made by representatives of the comptroller, Federal Reserve system and Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Yates said there will be no concrete developments on the plan for some time.

Nebraska law prohibits branch banks, but a second bank can be owned by stockholders and officers of an existing bank if they form a separate corporation.

The Cotner and O area also is to be the location for the home office building of the Bankers Life Insurance Company of Nebraska and the regional office of State Farm Mutual Insurance Companies of Bloomington, Ill.

Now Six Banks

Present banking facilities in Lincoln include three downtown banks and three suburban banks.

Several of them have been modernized and expanded recently and others are planning new buildings or additions.

A new building at 12th and N for the Continental National Bank at 11th and O is in very early stages of planning.

Citizens State Bank has acquired property at 48th and Huntington, two blocks south of its present location. Plans call for both drive-in and walk-up facilities and a parking area.

The Havelock National Bank, of which Gov. Victor Anderson is president, plans to increase its floor space 100 per cent with an addition to the west of the present building. There also will be drive-in facilities in the rear.

There is a possibility that a new, small capitalization bank may be started on the northern outskirts of Lincoln or that the Davey State Bank may be moved to that locality, according to George Frampton, president of the Davey bank.

He said he believes a need exists for an agriculturally-minded bank in that area. Any plans, however, are only in the preliminary discussion stage.

Gary Wants Strong Civil Rights Plank

CHICAGO (AP) — Gov. Raymond Gary of Oklahoma Thursday denied that he had urged a "weaker stand" on civil rights by Averell Harriman, Gary's choice for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Gov. Gary

Instead, the Oklahoma governor told a news conference called by Harriman headquarters here, he favors a strong plank and believes Harriman eventually will win the nomination.

Oklahoma City newsmen Wednesday night quoted Gary as saying he hoped Harriman would take a weaker stand on civil rights because "it would have a very strong bearing on whether we win the November election."

Statement Issued

Soon after his arrival here Thursday Harriman headquarters issued a Gary statement that the 1952 Democratic plank on civil rights was a good one but the Supreme Court decision of school desegregation should be spelled out.

Gary repeated this at his news conference and expressed surprise when asked about the "weaker stand" quotation.

Stassen: An Even Chance GOP Will Name Herter

WASHINGTON (AP)—Harold E. Stassen, pushing his dump-Nixon campaign, said Thursday there is now an even chance that the Republicans will nominate Gov. Christian Herter of Massachusetts for vice president.

Herter

Stassen supplied this 50-50 estimate at a news conference. He said that when he started out July 3 on his effort to substitute Herter for Vice President Richard Nixon, the chance of a Herter nomination was probably only 1 in 100.

"I would say that the situation has been changing quite rapidly," Stassen commented.

Since July 30 Stassen has been on leave of absence from his White House post as disarmament adviser to President Eisenhower, to give his whole attention to his anti-Nixon and pro-Herter work.

Claim Disputed

Stassen contends that Eisenhower's second term would suffer with Nixon again on the ticket, that many who liked Eisenhower don't like Nixon and would vote against an Ike-and-Dick ticket, or not vote at all. Many other prominent Republicans dispute this, and have bombarded Stassen with criticism.

GOP National Chairman Leonard Hall commented Tuesday that Stassen's campaign had lined up only five or six delegates to the nominating convention, out of the 1,323 total.

Stassen explained Thursday that his 50-50 estimate on the odds does not mean that half the convention delegates are now behind Herter. He said it was instead his "estimate of the total situation—always providing that this ticket proves to be acceptable to President Eisenhower."

Herter, who will nominate Nixon at the convention opening in San Francisco Aug. 20, has disavowed any vice-presidential ambitions.

Stassen gave an accounting of his mail, saying it seems to show that the strongest Herter support is in the Eastern states of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania, and the Far West states of Oregon, Washington and Nixon's home state of California.

Over 50 Tour Irrigated County Farms

Over 50 Lancaster County farmers participated Thursday afternoon in the second annual tour of irrigated farms in the county. The group visited three farms, all of which demonstrated different techniques in irrigation.

First stop of the tour was at the Charles Tyrrell farm, north of Waverly. Main point of interest was the irrigation pump on which an efficiency test was taken. By changing the height of the impeller, which creates the centrifugal force lifting the water up through the well, efficiency was increased from 49 per cent to 65 per cent.

The group stopped next across the road at the O. L. Anderson farm and saw a demonstration of water penetration, testing the infiltration of water for a given length of time in the soil. An example of the penetration was illustrated by one cylinder, sunk into the soil, which had been flooded with six inches of water. The penetration reached a depth of 24 inches.

The final stop was at the Lloyd Bevans farm, also north of Waverly, where the group saw a large plot of land and currently being leveled for future gravity irrigation. The land had been flattened, with the top soil removed and stored, to be later applied to those spots that lost too much of the rich top soil.

The tour was conducted by the Lancaster County Extension Service and was under the direction of Emery Nelson, associate county agent, and Cyril Bish, county agent.

Serving as specialists and answering the many questions asked by participating farmers were Paul Fischbach, extension service irrigation specialist, and Delbert Lane, extension service farm equipment specialist.

The group ended the tour with a watermelon feed.

Curtis Says Federal Debt Should Be Limited

FORT COLLINS, Colo. — Sen. Carl T. Curtis (R-Neb) said here he favored debt limitations for the federal government. He spoke this week before the 11th annual Midwest Savings Conference at Colorado A & M College here.

Sen. Curtis also said he was in favor of constitutional authority to provide for "pay-as-you-go" federal operations except in wartime or other dire emergency.

Nebraskans attending the conference included Marvin G. Welstead of Fremont, conference president; Mrs. Gladys Forsyth, president of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Lincoln and president of the Southwestern Savings and Loan Conference, Dean Kratz of Lincoln, executive secretary of the Nebraska Savings and Loan League, and O. D. Johnson of the State Savings and Loan Association.

The conference reviewed a 40 per cent growth of the savings and loan industry in the fourth-state area of Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma and Colorado.

Ike, Nixon Meeting Is Called

WASHINGTON (INS) —President Eisenhower will hold a hurriedly-scheduled conference with Vice President Richard M. Nixon at the White House Friday morning.

The White House Thursday night scheduled the meeting after the President's regular list of callers for Friday had been announced. It caused a rearrangement in Mr. Eisenhower's schedule.

The subject of the Eisenhower-Nixon talk was not disclosed, but it followed presidential assistant-on-leave Harold E. Stassen's assertion that he is "gaining rapidly" in his attempt to force Nixon off the 1956 GOP ticket.

Meanwhile, Nixon, former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and deputy attorney General William P. Rogers held a dinner meeting at a Washington hotel.

Describing the affair as a "social occasion," Dewey told newsmen: "We're just friends having dinner together, discussing the Republican National Convention."

Rescue Hope For 260 In Mine Dims

MARCINELLE, Belgium (AP) — Hopes of saving 260 men entombed in a burning coal mine here slumped sharply Thursday night.

"The mine has become a big grave," said one rescue worker.

After 36 hours of feverish work, rescue teams were pulled out of the lower workings of the fiery Bois du Casier mine. They had been driven back by intense heat from smoking galleries where they had hoped to find survivors.

It was, however, a temporary halt. The emergency squads still hoped that if they could shoot enough water along the galleries at the 2,200-foot level, the atmosphere might cool and allow them to re-enter.

This was the crucial point of the operation. Rescue work had already been called off at higher levels, where the heavy density of carbon dioxide gas precluded any chance of life. The higher-level galleries were sealed off, dooming 30 men known to be in them.

In the long grind since the coal mine burst into flames Wednesday, rescuers had managed to snatch only six living men from the inferno. Nine bodies have been taken out.

Vic To Talk Randall-G.I. Line To Group

Governor Victor Anderson is going to Grand Lake, Colo., Friday to discuss the propsed 230 kv transmission line from Fort Randall to Grand Island with the Missouri Basin Inter-Agency Committee.

Congress turned thumbs down on an appropriation for the project despite its having the approval of President Eisenhower.

Anderson declared he thought the matter was misunderstood, and said he will present it Friday in the hope the other nine basin states will get behind Nebraska and help get the bill re-introduced in Congress.

The governor said Nebraska does not want any more than its fair share of power and is willing to let the Bureau of Reclamation determine the amount.

"All Nebraska wants," Anderson stated, "is surplus power in the summertime, which at present is being dumped on private utilities. We're willing to pay a fair price for the power, which in 1958 would mean $175,000 more for the government than it would get under the present arrangement. Projected to 1962, the increase would amount to $300,000."

Anderson said this merely means selling at firm power rates the surplus which now is going for "dump price" rates.

Anderson explained the state has a peculiar situation with its tremendous irrigation projects. "You can't build a big power plant for six or eight weeks' load," the governor said.

Benefit Hikes To Aid 4,000 In Nebraska

Lincoln Star Special

OMAHA—More than 4,000 retired railroad employes, survivors and wives in Nebraska will receive increases up to 10 per cent in their monthly benefits, according to the Railroad Retirement Board office here.

President Eisenhower signed a bill Tuesday amending the Railroad Retirement Act giving increases to more than 400,000 of the 650,000 persons in the nation now on the Railroad Retirement Board's monthly benefit rolls.

About 300,000 of those who will receive higher benefits are retired employes, and most of them will get the full 10 per cent increase.

In addition, some 40,000 wives and 25,000 survivors will also get benefit increase, although not as much as 10 per cent.

Annuities for some 20,000 employes 70,000 wives and 145,000 survivors will not increase because they are already receiving benefits calculated under special maximum or guaranty provisions, which are as high as they could get under the newly-amended law.

Despite the 10 per cent increase, the railroad retirement tax rate will remain the same.

Harry Holt Lands In U.S. With More Korean Orphans

PORTLAND, Ore. (INS)—Farmer Harry Holt of near Creswell, Ore., reached America with 24 more mixed-blood Korean-American babies Thursday in spite of a heart attack he suffered over the Pacific.

It was Holt's third cargo of children. He now has brought 88 to the United States, of which his family alone adopted eight.

The dark-haired farmer with the lined face suffered his heart attack after the plane left Honolulu. He was given oxygen, and a woman passenger who helped care for the orphans on the trip commented, "Mr. Holt suffered great pain."

Holt has had previous heart attacks.

Five of Thursday's consignment of children have been adopted by Oregon couples. Holt's 19-year-old daughter, Barbara, accompanied the others when they boarded a plane for California, where most will find new homes.

Holt travels between the United States and Korea at his own expense in an effort to get as many of the mixed-blood orphans as possible into this country before the law permitting their entry expires Dec. 31.

Extension Is Expected By August 20 On Right To Graze Soil Bank Land

By BETTY PERSON
Star Staff Writer

Governor Victor Anderson Thursday asked Agriculture Secretary Ezra Benson for an extension from Aug. 31 to Dec. 31 of grazing privileges on Nebraska acreage reserved for the soil bank.

Frazee

Anderson made the request following a meeting here with Harry Frazee, assistant to Director of Agricultural Credit Services Kenneth Scott. Frazee predicted at that meeting that grazing permission would be extended to the end of the year.

Fifty one of the state's 93 counties are now exercising grazing privileges.

Frazee later told the Lincoln Star that approval for the extension request probably would be made by August 20. He said authorization should be made by that date, otherwise county agents would have to give each farmer a 10 day notice that he must have livestock off the acreage reserved by August 31. "The August 20 or 21 date would save a lot of people a lot of work," Frazee concluded.

The USDA representative met in the Governor's Hearing Room with Anderson, State Agriculture Director Ed Hoyt, State FHA Director William Collett, State ASC Director Robert Webb, and some 70 farmers and county officials from Nebraska's drought-stricken areas.

Frazee explained that according to law farmers are specifically forbidden to harvest crops from acres in the soil bank program. He said corn must be fed in the field. It cannot be cut and hauled to feedlots or stored as ensilage. This is necessary, he said, because some corn is planted for the express purpose of using it for ensilage.

The USDA official said that since it is injurious to feed green corn to cattle, "farmers may cut the corn down, let it lay where it falls until it is cured, then let the cattle in to eat it off the ground."

Governor Anderson was roundly applauded when he declared there should be the most liberal interpretation of the law to enable farmer's to use feed where it is available. The governor said otherwise some of the farmers would have to ask the government for aid in buying feed.

"If the feed's there, I think they should be allowed to use it. It all ends up in the cow's stomach and I don't think anyone is going to lose his job for making a liberal interpretation. You'll be giving these people a break and they need it."

Frazee answered that both he and Scott concur wholeheartedly with the Governor's statement. "When we authorize counties to graze acerage reserved, we expect them to use for immediate consumption whatever is growing there," he remarked.

All-Out Effort

In accordance with his remarks at the meeting, Anderson later Thursday continued his all-out effort to secure authorization from the USDA to permit Nebraska farmers to shock soil bank corn, in order that the farmer might receive the most feed value from this corn.

Anderson declared that in Nebraska, unlike many other parts of the country, "the farmer's original intent in planting corn is for the grain crop only, and not for the purpose of harvesting the foliage for silage."

"For this reason," Anderson said, "I believe the USDA could give permission to the farmers in the drought stricken areas of Nebraska to shock the soil bank acreage grain crop, thereby gaining the most benefit from the crop and greatly relieving the serious conditions presently existing in Nebraska."

Frazee also said he though the Agriculture Department would set up a hay program this fall whereby they would pay transportation costs over $10 to $15 for bringing hay into drought areas from surplus areas.

The USDA official also outlined steps farmers may take in applying for emergency credit where all local resources have been exhausted. He said the requirements are very exacting, but help will be made available if it is needed.

FAIRBURY, Neb.—At ceremonies Thursday Kathleen Pohlman, 15, of Plymouth and Alan Svajger, 13, of Diller were crowned king and queen of the Jefferson County Fair. Howard Boeckner, president of the Fairbury Chamber of Commerce, placed crowns on the heads of the royal couple.

H. C. Acker was master of ceremonies.

Included on the program were 4-H club Share-The-Fun skits, a style review, and 4-H baby beef sale.

During the beef judging contest, Melvin Weers of Diller won first place. Bill Glenn, Fairbury, Janice Grummert, Plymouth, Robert Milius, Powell and Byron Blobaum, Fairbury took the other four top spots.

Grand champion breeding beef in the 4-H livestock show was shown by Bub Hackbarth, and the reserve champion was shown by his brother, Lonnie. Both boys are from Fairbury.

Kathleen Pohlman of Plymouth won the senior beef showmanship contest. Purple ribbons in the beef contest went to animals shown by Ardys Logan, breeding class; Darrell Weers, Fairbury, and Janice Grummert, Plymouth, market steers class; and Kathleen Pohlman, Plymouth, market heifers.

In open class beef cattle, Don Banhan of Steele City showed the grand champion, and Irl Brone of Steele City won reserve honors.

As the Jefferson County Fair concludes Friday, the 4-H and FFA tractor driving contest will take up the morning and stage shows are scheduled for afternoon and evening performances.

Missing Woman Identified

The identity of a Lincoln woman missing since Aug. 1 was officially disclosed Thursday as Mrs. Lucille Whitcomb, 29, of 1762 No. 27th.

In this disclosure, Chief Dep. Co. Atty Dale Fahrnbruch refused to say, however, that it was Mrs. Whitcomb's body which was found Sunday in Salt Creek seven miles northeast of Lincoln.

Positive identification of the body must await a report from the FBI Laboratory in Washington, D. C., Fahrnbruch said. He added, however, that the local autopsy report was "suggestive" that the dead woman was of the Negro race.

The autopsy also indicated death was due to drowning. Fahrnbruch said "foreign matter or debris was found in the lungs which is consistent with drowning."

Fahrnbruch, reporting on the investigation for the missing Mrs. Whitcomb, a Negro, said she "had attempted suicide on at least three different occasions."

"There are further indications (prior to her disappearance) of 'depression'" Fahrnbruch said.

"She has been a voluntary patient at the Lincoln State Hospital, where she was recently released, and had been under treatment by a Lincoln psychiatrist."

Asked if there was any evidence of foul play in the unidentified woman's death, Fahrnbruch answered: "There's no evidence of gross violence."

Mrs. Whitcomb's husband is Henry D. Whitcomb, a 27-year-old foundry mould worker. They have two children, 10 and 11.

Fahrnbruch declined further comment as to autopsy or investigative details.

The report, given by Fahrnbruch, was made jointly with the Sheriff's office, Lincoln Police Department, Nebraska Safety Patrol, and County Attorney's office.

First Things First

The true relationship of home interest and interstate travel was brought to question by the latest adventure in planning by the Iowa state highway commission.

Nebraska Highway Engineer L. N. Ress received a surprise package this week when he sat down with the Iowans at Ames to continue preparations for the proposed interstate highway. Although previous planning had consistently revolved about an understanding that the Des Moines-west section of the thoroughfare would reach Nebraska in the environs of Omaha from whence it would preceed west via Lincoln the Iowa commission was busy working on a new idea, namely one that would route the highway considerably to the north aiming at Missouri Valley and the Sioux City area. Such a routing might serve some Iowa convenience, but the principle does not bid fare to give the nation a practical cross-country highway and offers no assurance that what may be better for one state is something a neighboring state can live with. It would be an unusual state thoroughfare for Nebraska that would give only remote service to its most populous areas, neither a service to outstate Nebraskans nor to national travel and commerce.

The question remains something less than a crisis. Iowa and Nebraska are good-neighbor states in more ways than highway construction. There is every reason to believe that due examination of Iowa's re-planning will result in an amicable solution by which both states will enjoy their maximum justifiable benefits.

Nebraska's Renewed Quest

If persistence is to be the criterion of success it can be said that Nebraska is making effective headway in its quest for a 230 kilovolt transmission line linking Missouri Basin power sources at Fort Randall, South Dakota, with the Nebraska electrical load at Grand Island.

The third effort to win the line has been initiated in as many years. The $9 million proposal, which was contemplated in the original planning of the basin project, failed first in Congress when the Department of Interior withheld approval, telling Congress the outlay could not be justified. It failed in the last Congress, despite a nod of approval from President Eisenhower in the face of objections from neighboring basin states plus the cold treatment of the Nebraska delegation by public power members of the House appropriations committee. One of them expressed it in a criticism of the Nebraskans who he asserted consistently opposed public power in principle but only hustled for it when Nebraska interests were involved.

This third renewal initially embodies brighter prospects. South Dakota's Senator Case has expressed a willingness to work with Nebraska on understandings which could remove the principal objections of his state to Nebraska's bid for more basin power. Such an agreement would remove a formidable barrier.

It is pertinent that at this time Nebraska's Governor Victor Anderson has given assurance to South Dakota that it is not this state's intention to absorb more than its proper share of basin power, and he stated the logic of Nebraska's bid for the line by pointing out that the federal government would now be $175,000 better off were it selling the 230 kilovolt output to Nebraska rather than wholesaling it to private utilities at a lower dump rate.

The growth of rural use and of irrigation has given Nebraska unusual seasonal electric power characteristics. It needs more in the summer than in the winter. By a fortuitous circumstance basin production becomes greater in the summer, for it is one of the functions of the basin reservoirs to maintain navigation levels during the summer below in the Missouri river. They have the power to sell at a time Nebraska needs it.

After Thirty Years

What happens to a man who has given thirty of the best years of his life to serving the public in Congress?

There was a near half-column story out of Kansas giving election returns in a fiercely contested primary which saw the defeat of Governor Fred Hall. The next-to-the-last paragraph of an Associated Press story out of Topeka contained these lines:

"The sixth member of the state's Congressional delegation, Clifford R. Hope, is retiring after thirty years of service."

There have been other stories dealing with Mr. Hope's planned retirement. But somehow it just struck us that any man who has demonstrated the competence and conscientiousness of Cliff Hope for more than a quarter of a century simply cannot be dismissed with four lines in a round-up story of a primary. Those thirty years of service mean that in 15 consecutive elections Cliff Hope's people recognizing him for what he is kept sending him back to Washington to look after their interests. Their confidence was not misplaced. A man of balance and reason, scholarly, thorough and painstaking in everything that he did, Cliff Hope is retiring as ranking member of the powerful, important Committee on Agriculture in the House, a post which has given him standing and prestige among his fellow Republicans.

Yet we have the idea that in stepping down and out, undefeated for more than a quarter of a century, respected and esteemed by his people, Cliff Hope must breathe a genuine sigh of relief. The pace in Washington is punishing. The job of congressman has become a year-around chore calling for long hours, with little opportunity for rest or relaxation. Actually it is a treadmill. Cliff Hope is a party man but we doubt seriously that he has relished the manner in which Secretary Benson has handled the farmer. He keeps his finger closely enough upon the pulse of the people of his district that he could not other than know some of them are deeply disappointed and dissatisfied with the Benson plan.

So Mr. Hope is retiring after thirty years of service and did not seek re-election. He will be missed in the halls of the mighty.

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

When the former secretary of the interior, Oscar Chapman, came before the platform committee of the Democratic National Convention to discuss development of natural resources, it was to use some strong language. In his prepared testimony Mr. Chapman was reported in the news columns to have said this: "Partnership, Eisenhower style, is nothing more nor less than an unholy alliance between the federal government and the private power companies of America."

★

There is no department in the sprawling agencies of federal government that calls for greater vigilance than the Department of Interior, now presided over by a most capable Nebraskan, Fred Seaton, who succeeded Douglas McKay to the post. We have known Fred Seaton for many years, known him for the forthright, understanding and public-spirited newspaperman that he is. Whatever may be the criticism to be brought against the Department of Interior—and regretfully we fear there is too much for comfort to the harsh charges brought by Oscar Chapman — it did not start with Fred Seaton. Even before the private utility boys got a foot in the door, their well-laid plans, it seemed to us, were plainly evident. They were there in full force at the Republican National Convention in 1952 in the galleries, in the hotel lobbies, busy and active. They have been well represented in Washington since the Eisenhower administration took over—for that matter, well represented under both Republican and Democratic administrations. If Mr. Seaton is to restore public power policy even to some semblance of what it was, then he will have to swim against the current every foot of the way.

Price Is Eternal Vigilance

★

Public power is not the same in every section of the country. West of the Missouri in these semi-arid states where irrigation is of such vital concern, public power does not replace the private utilities out of a desire on the part of people to attack private enterprise. Quite to the contrary. The only reason public power is of necessity in these irrigation states is that the profits from it serve to lessen the cost of putting water on the land.

★

And that has been so badly abused and distorted in recent months. A reader of this newspaper sent in material appearing in a national publication which was so misleading and so unfortunate. There can be no sound irrigation program necessitating the storage of large amounts of water back of a big dam except that every kilowatt of electricity which can be generated is developed to be sold as a handmaiden to irrigation. The Eisenhower administration can talk eloquently of this new-found partnership with private enterprise, but there is nothing new about that. It is old. The private utilities avoided the huge multiple-purpose dams in the beginning but when they no longer could avoid them, then they sought to divert electricity so generated to their own handling so whatever profits arose would come to them. There are few issues today of greater importance than this Eisenhower partnership program. It should be stopped before it becomes so strongly rooted that it cannot other than affect American national life for years to come.

Much Abused And Distorted

We need big dams notwithstanding the traditional opposition of the private power companies. We need the multiple-purpose dam. The public should give the multiple-purpose dam sufficient attention to understand the purposes it serves. We need as a forward-looking country the most intelligent development of natural resources at our fingertips. And if we get that intelligent type of development, then we will see to it that the multiple-purpose dam is restored to good standing in America.

Regard The Facts

It has a quieting effect on the United States to hear President Eisenhower counsel moderation on the part of all parties in the Suez dispute. But the facts are not bearing him out. Egypt is mobilizing its armed forces. Britain and France are loading troop ships. Prime Minister Anthony Eden of Great Britain is referring to the canal as his country's lifeline.

And there is more to it than that. Egypt, a country slightly larger than Texas but with no more arable land than Connecticut, is faced with the problem of providing for 23 million people. And with its increasing population even the reclamation promised by the proposed Aswan dam will not be sufficient to keep up with the growing food demand.

Moderation is a nice word, but a better term would be a program alternative to war, a move to remove the canal from the dispute, to lay down arms and to attack the root of the problem—Egypt's poverty and hunger. Moderation as a negative attitude is about the last thing to administer as a happy and effective remedy.

GOP Hustles For Party Faithful

WASHINGTON — With the Democrats busy preparing to nominate their man for president, Republicans are chuckling privately over the way they have outsmarted the Dems on one of the most dynamite-laden questions inside the government.

This is the award of a contract for building an expansion to the government's nickel plant at Nicaro, Cuba, and a secret diary showing the manner in which chairman Len Hall, master mogul of the Republican party, pulled wires in favor of his pet company.

Reason the Republicans are smiling is because they have managed to suppress this diary. Attorney General Brownell has been sitting on it to keep it out of Democratic hands. Even Eisenhower has been brought into the picture and has concurred that the diary must be suppressed.

Democratic congressmen made frantic demands for the diary. But all they got were smooth smiles from Attorney General Brownell.

Though House of Representatives Democrats dropped the ball, Senator McClellan's government operations committee has now picked it up and may go further.

Meanwhile, other copies of the diary exist, and this writer has seen them.

The entries show that Chairman Hall demanded that his friends, the Raymond Concrete Pile Company of New York, get the engineering contract for the very important and lucrative construction job in Cuba. They also show that Hall was against the Frederick Snare Corp., because Snare had not contributed sufficiently to the Republican party.

Chairman Hall, when questioned, called this a "damned lie."

☆ ☆ ☆

SNARE EXECUTIVE CONTRIBUTES

The Snare company had built the first government plant in Cuba, had a base in Cuba, and was considered qualified to build an extension to the old plant.

Randall Cremer, executive vice president of the Snare Company, who kept the diary, went to see Chairman Hall and argued with him about the Republican background of his firm. He also got Harold Talbott, then Secretary of the Air Force, to talk to Hall to convince him that the Snare company was a good Republican firm.

Someone in Republican ranks even checked the donations of the Snare firm and found that two or three of its executives had contributed $100 each to the GOP in 1952, which the Republicans regarded as mere chicken feed.

SIGNIFICANT DIARY ENTRY

Here is one important entry in the secret Cremer diary which the Justice Department has suppressed and the Democrats are trying to get their hands on. It is dated June 15, 1954, just two months before the big Cuban contract was let.

"Call from Richard Simpson," reads the entry in the Cremer diary, "Unfavorable news from Hall — has the impression some of references we had given had failed to come through: 1) Talbott (Secretary of Air Force), who vouched for what we had said about the original award of Nicaro to us, but has since endorsed Raymond (concrete pile) and greatly weakened our case; 2) Bernard Shanley (of the White House staff), who has simply walked out; 3) has received no corroboration from the finance chairmen in New York and New Jersey."

The latter referred to the Republican finance chairmen in New Jersey and New York, who were supposed to verify Cremer's contention that Snare corporation officials had contributed to the GOP in the past.

Cremer pointed out on another occasion that the Snare company had received contracts from the Democrats in the past with no questions asked about political affiliations.

"It seems strange that it should be mentioned now with our own party in control," he said.

South In A Weak Position This Year

CHICAGO — Democratic harmonizers have taken control of the writing of the party platform. The drafting subcommittee named by Chairman John W. McCormack is dominated by men on both sides who really want unity on civil rights and other issues.

But the war will not be over until the candidates for office examine the subcommittee product on which they will have to run. Governor G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, for example, can't be re-elected on words so weaseling they will bring roars of protest from Walter Reuther of the CIO. Win, lose or draw, Williams and people similarly situated would have to fight again.

The South's dilemma is that it has no practical alternative to Adlai Stevenson's candidacy. If Southerners make it too tough for him and split the convention, they can do no better on civil rights and may do worse.

This is admitted by the intellectual leader of their platform cohorts, former Governor John S. Battle of Virginia. It is the reason that the governor of Mississippi is being amazingly restrained and that Senator Samuel J. Ervin Jr. of North Carolina is beating a retreat from his outburst against Stevenson's call for a strong civil rights plank.

☆ ☆ ☆

Unlike 1952, there simply are no southern firebrands present here who want to walk out and will find a reason why. Had Governors James F. Byrnes, Allan Shivers and Robert F. Kennon four years ago not been presented with the loyalty oath alibi, they would have found another excuse. They were envenomed against Harry S. Truman; they wanted to raise the Eisenhower-Tidelands Oil banner in their states.

A few days spent here in watching, and in conversation with, the Southerners now struggling with the civil rights issue give a totally different impression. The 1956 group is mad at a Supreme Court decision, not at people they can get at in a political convention. This is a great difference and they see it.

Governor Averell Harriman's problem is that it doesn't do him any good if the Southerners can be induced to take out their frustrations on Stevenson. All that would happen would be to open the way for a dark horse.

☆ ☆ ☆

The Harriman technique is to approach each and every delegate with a request for his consideration. The New Yorker has been almost totally unable to do anything with other governors and leaders of delegations.

Thus he has not been able to announce important accessions of strength. Unless he can do so rather soon, he is finished.

Party Pressures Dewey For Senate

CHICAGO, POLITICS AS USUAL—Great pressure was brought to bear upon Tom Dewey this past week to abdicate his successful law business and run for the U.S. Senate against Herbert Lehman, Democrat.

"I think he will, and win," former Colorado Governor Dan Thornton, now a senatorial aspirant, told us after he appeared on Martha Rounteree's "Press Conference."

"I feel he's more popular through the country now than when he was running for the presidency," Thornton said. "People think more about an administrator today than they did a few years ago. There's nobody can touch Tom as an administrator."

Thornton thinks that "party loyalty" will persuade Dewey—twice beaten as GOP presidential nominee—to come back to the wars, this time draped in a senatorial toga. Thornton had talked to Eisenhower only three hours before he made his Dewey remarks.

☆ ☆ ☆

"He had a gleam in his eye," Thornton said when asked what was President Eisenhower's reaction when asked to spend a vacation in Colorado after the San Francisco convention. Thornton has issued such an invitation. He scoffed at reports that Colorado, high, parts or low parts, is bad for heart cases.

☆ ☆ ☆

Speaking of Dewey, the persistent talk at Chicago is that he triggered Harold Stassen into the dump-Nixon campaign with the tacit understanding Stassen would be "taken care of" no matter how the experiment turned out.

We'll probably never know.

☆ ☆ ☆

We asked Thornton, "how come a smart cookie like Harold Stassen makes a boo-boo like endorsing Governor Herter?"

Thornton, very close to Ike, replied, "Harold's timing was bad."

☆ ☆ ☆

Harriman's man, Carmine De Sapio, claims that 75 per cent of the shepherdless delegates of Sen. Estes Kefauver will troop into the camp of the New York governor.

Stevenson's man, Jim Finnegan, estimates that 80 per cent of these lost souls will come over to Stevenson.

That's 155 per cent. One timidly suggests that somebody must be lying or bragging. Not even Max Baer sold that much of himself.

GILBERT'S "What Young People Think"

Rock And Roll: IS IT A MENACE OR HARMLESS TEEN-AGE FUN?

By EUGENE GILBERT
President of the
Gilbert Youth Research Co.

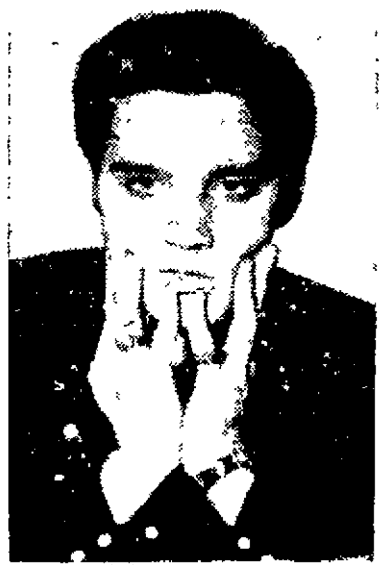
Teen-agers regard Rock 'n Roll as a revved up version of the Charleston or Lindy-hop; and they see its most noted practitioner, Elvis Presley, as a latter-day disciple of Rudy Vallee or Frank Sinatra.

Harried parents, for the most part, scorn this comparison with the music of their salad days and go even further back in history to find a counterpart of the fad.



ELVIS PRESLEY
Without His Guitar

To some of them rock 'n roll, with its undulating two-beat rhythm, is lewd and dangerous, a throw back to Greek and Roman orgies or some primitive tribal rite. They cite rock 'n' roll riots here and there across the country, and occasional bans on such goings on.

Clergymen, educators and others in related fields are divided on the subject. A large percentage deplore rock 'n' roll and everything connected with it. But a growing and impressive number of men and women in these same fields tend to agree with the teenagers. They point to the similarities between rock 'n' roll and other dance fads that have swept the country in by-gone years and consider the latest craze a harmless way for youngsters to use up excess energy.

Centered now on Presley, whose so-called singing arouses violent hatreds as well as loyalties, the controversy rages on, and the rock 'n' roll phenomenon right along with it. Every day more and more teen-agers between the ages of 13 and 19 become exponents of this new musical form.

Why?

IT ISN'T WHAT THEY SAY

Our organization interviewed over 3,975 boys and girls and their parents in 41 cities across the nation to find out what young people themselves think about rock 'n' roll and its influence upon them.

First Article In A Weekly Series

'WHAT YOUNG PEOPLE THINK'

"I don't know exactly what the reason is, but it just sends me," said an Omaha enthusiast.

"The rhythm carries me away," agreed an Indianapolis miss. "When that crazy beat starts, I feel I could rock on forever."

Her answer touched on an interesting facet of this new dance mania: the music and not the lyrics is the sending agency for those who are "sent" by it.

Of those teen-agers who considered themselves rock 'n' rollers, 73 per cent said the words of the song are less than unimportant. In fact, they told us that rarely do they listen at all to the lyrics. It's the two-beat rhythm that sends them

And, they do not believe that either the music or the lyrics are dangerous or suggestive.

TO PARENTS IT'S PRIMITIVE

"You're just not with it, man," a Chicago devotee told us. "Why is this so much different from the Charleston or the lindy-hop? We're only having some fun before we get too old to enjoy ourselves."

A majority of the parents interviewed looked upon rock 'n' roll with fear and trepidation.

"It looks like a Roman orgy when those kids get together," a horrified Cincinnati mother exclaimed.

Another Midwest mother told our interviewer, "I think this primitive kind of music, if you can call it that, is downright lewd."

The survey showed that 83 per cent of the parents would prefer to see their children socially occupied in some other direction, but only 29 per cent feel so strongly about it that they would like to see rock 'n' roll banned from their communities.

Their main concern: "Will rock 'n' roll ruin my child?"

The teen agers laugh at such fears.

Clergymen and educators who see rock 'n' roll as a noisy but harmless outlet for youthful energy point out that every few years some new dance craze sweeps the country with whirlwind force.

And, they contend, each time a new dance skips over the musical horizon, the older generation greets it with disapproval while teen-agers run to meet it with open arms.

Their advice to parents: stop worrying, let your offspring enjoy themselves until rock 'n' roll runs its course, then relax, if you can, until the next fad is born.

The same goes for Presley, the sideburned young man with the undulating hips who has so suddenly rocked and rolled his way to fame and fortune in the entertainment world.

RUDY VALLEE
Saxophone His Trademark

Mothers and fathers look with distaste, not only on his performance but also on its hypnotic after-effects!

A 16-year-old Texan gives this description of Presley's emotional impact on an audience: "When Elvis sings, I'm on Cloud Nine. He makes me forget everything but the music — and him singing it."

This type of response is precisely what parents are worried about. They express feelings of discomfiture and foreboding about what a San Francisco mother terms "the Elvis Presley cult."

Again, teen-agers find their defense in the past of their parents.

"They swooned over Sinatra and drooled over Rudy Vallee," reminded a New Jersey girl. "At least Elvis isn't a milksop. We've much better taste — he's a real hunk of man!"

State Sales Tax

Hemingford, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Relative to the letter of "Youthful Observer" on sales and income taxes, may I, as a visitor from Arizona, make a few comments—all acid.

The state of Arizona collects a 2-cent sales tax on every transaction (retail) including rent, food and drugs. In theory, at least. The joker, however, is that people do not spend money in even dollars. Accordingly any purchase of 20 cents up to 50 cents is taxed one penny. Any purchase over 70 cents is taxed two pennies. It can easily be seen that the 2-cent sales tax is actually somewhere near four cents, simply because median purchases outweigh the purchases in round dollars. This differential is known as "breakage" and is smiled upon by merchants because they pay the state a 2-cent tax on every dollar grossed, and that is that.

Obviously the lower income group are the people who are socked the hardest. At a wage of $40 a week, the tax will run close to $1.50 weekly or $6 a month—the price of a pair of shoes, a dress or two, or even badly needed medical care.

It is hardly necessary to labor the injustice of the sales tax at greater length. It is unfair and directly opposite the American system of equal taxation; an opinion depending entirely on the viewpoint of the individual.

In addition to the 2 per cent sales tax, the Arizona state legislature (in the past session) passed a 2 per cent "use" tax, which in short is an import tax on anything purchased outside the state and brought across the state line for "use" in Arizona. This "use" tax (read import duty) is in opposition to the section of the United States Constitution which forbids any state from collecting import or export duties, all of which did not impress the Arizona state legislature.

This law, if it does nothing else, will have a tendency to make a criminal of any resident of Arizona who purchases an article by mail, and who doesn't forward the tax to the state as required by law. This question of morality is quite complex and can be argued elsewhere.

At any rate, as the Arizona state legislature enacts more and more "sales" and "use" taxes, or taxes in general, that body finds it necessary to appropriate more and more money for "relief" and "welfare." There must be a connection between the two but this writer can only guess what it must be.

I do not presume the right to advise Nebraska on the sales tax, but I thought this might be of interest to Star readers.

Demos, GOP Agreed At '44, '48, '52, Confabs On Civil Rights

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats and Republicans have agreed at their last three national conventions on the principle that all Americans, regardless of color, origin or religion, should have the same civil rights.

A study of the civil rights planks in the 1944, 1948 and 1952 party platforms shows a marked similarity on this subject. Except for differences in phraseology the civil rights planks of both parties might as well have been written by the same men and women.

The planks nailed into the formal platforms were the product of skilled politicians who shaped them during days and nights of hard work—always with the view of attracting the largest number of votes.

Civil rights problems of the Republicans have been less acute than those of the Democrats, whose political stronghold long has been the race-conscious South. Republican civil rights planks have been adopted with little difficulty at the party's last three conventions.

Bitterest Fight

Democrats, on the other hand, have staged some of their bitterest convention fights over civil rights planks. At Philadelphia in 1948 many Southern delegates walked out of the convention in protest over a civil rights plank committing the party's nominees to eradicate racial, religious, economic and political discrimination.

Again in 1952, at Chicago, many Southerners threatened to bolt the Democratic convention because of a platform demand for federal laws guaranteeing equal rights regardless of race, religion or national origin.

Here are pertinent excerpts from the civil rights planks of the party platforms of the last three national conventions:

Democrats, 1944: "We believe that racial and religious minorities have the right to live, develop and vote equally with all citizens and share the rights that are guaranteed by our Constitution. Congress should exert its full constitutional powers to protect those rights."

Republicans, 1944: "We unreservedly condemn the injection into American life of appeals to racial or religious prejudice. We pledge an immediate congressional inquiry to ascertain the extent to which mistreatment, segregation and discrimination against Negroes who are in our armed forces are impairing morale and efficiency, and the adoption of corrective legislation. We pledge the establishment by federal legislation of a permanent fair employment practice commission." It also opposed poll taxes and advocated antilynching legislation.

Appointment Set

MOSCOW (INS) — The Soviet Foreign Ministry set up an appointment for Japanese Foreign Minister Mamoru Shigemitsu with Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Communist party secretary Nikita Khrushchev for 2:30 p.m. Friday.

Shigemitsu sought the interview at a higher level to present Japan's case on the demanded return of Japanese territory after reaching a deadlock in negotiations with Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov.

Services Monday For Mrs. Burgess

Funeral services for Mrs. Martha H. Burgess, 61, of 3727 Everett, will be 10 a.m. Monday at Wadlows.

Mrs. Burgess died Wednesday. The Rev. Arthur Crisp will officiate. Burial will be in Lincoln Memorial Park.

Born in Lincoln, Mrs. Burgess had lived here all her life. She was employed at Lincoln General Hospital.

She was a member of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Surviving are sons, Ervin and Martin of Lincoln, Carl of Richland, Wash., Glenn of Palmdale, Brown of Lincoln; sisters, Mrs. Alma Buettgenbach, Mrs. Freda Muehlhausen and Miss Marie Busche, all of Lincoln; brothers, Fred Busche of Milwaukee, Wis., and William Busche of Austin, Tex., and seven grandchildren.

Lived In Hawaii

HONOLULU (INS) — Honolulu friends of Walter F. Kimg, who apparently attempted suicide in a New York hotel, recalled that he had come to Hawaii in January, 1954, after his retirement as head of the British Information Service at New Delhi, India.

He and his wife settled down in a home in the tiny, sleepy Punaluu Beach area on the far side of Oahu Island.

At the time, it was recalled, Kimg said he had chosen Hawaii in which to live because at this "crossroads of the world" he could meet many of the friends he had made over the years in many countries.

NEW PEN PROGRAMS AIM AT INMATE REHABILITATION

By BETTY PERSON
Star Staff Writer

Accompanying the Nebraska Penitentiary's building projects and steps to increase both the size and the quality of the staff has been the adoption of a far-reaching new program, designed to rehabilitate each prisoner so well while he is in custody that he will never return to this or any other institution following his release.

Seven points stand out. They are: the orientation program, classification board, vocationsl training program, religious training, education, recreation and pre-release training programs.

Warden Joseph Bovey says the prison administration has the desire to make worthwhile, self-supporting citizens of every person remanded to its custody. "We will go just as far as the individual prisoner will permit us in helping him," the warden said. He emphasized, however, that prison officials are "prepared to deal with recalcitrants as drastically as the situation calls for in a just and effective manner."

Quarantine First

When a prisoner enters the institution he is put in quarantine for the first week. He is processed through the hospital where he is photographed, fingerprinted, scrubbed and clothed. He also is given aptitude and psychological tests and, as time permits, studies lessons preparatory for discussion classes held at night.

These night classes are part of the orientation program begun in April of this year. Here the prisoner learns the relationship between himself and prison administration and goes over the new rule book to learn exactly what is expected of him and what he can expect.

Four of these classes are devoted to the study of a course called "Character Guidance to Successful Living", and one night course in Christian ethics is offered.

Board Sets Plan

From here the prisoner goes before the classification board. This board is composed of the warden, deputy warden, associate warden, Board of Control psychologist, superintendent of industries, director of education, institution parole officer, institution chaplain, and those additional custodial officers as are available.

Here the prisoner's entire program at the prison is planned. Each prisoner comes before the board again after 90 days and then appears annually. Maximum custody cases are reviewed monthly.

Here is how the other programs work:

Vocational training program: Prison industries at the Nebraska Penitentiary provide equipment and supplies for the prison itself, other state institutions and political subdivisions. At the same time this makes it possible for inmates to be productively employed during their incarceration and learn a vocation which can make them self-supporting when they are released.

Still Difficult

Warden Bovey has said he still has difficulty finding sufficient work to keep the prison's 750 (average) inmates occupied.

Religious training program: Efforts are being made to expand the Penitentiary's religious program and prison officials have asked Lincoln ministers to co-ordinate their work with the Penitentiary. Associate Warden (and former chaplain) the Rev. Robert Rudell says, "The basic part of rehabilitation is to develop religious philosophy."

Education Program: The Penitentiary's academic education program is still in its growing stages. Efforts are underway to make the prison school accredited. This would qualify the Penitentiary for receipt of surplus goods made available by the federal government and distributed by the State Department of Education.

Recreation program: In February, 1955, the Penitentiary employed former Nebraska University wrestling coach Jerry Adams to direct a two-way recreation project: training program for the guards and physical education for the prisoners.

Uses Up Energy

Warden Bovey emphasizes the importance of this program as a constructive way to use up the exuberant energy inmates have. Adam says it works toward body building and better health and thus towards better citizenship.

Pre-release training program: In January of this year the Penitentiary instituted an extensive 10-day pre-release training program for those inmates who had been granted paroles. The program has now been extended to include all outgoing prisoners wanting it.

Warden Bovey and other prison and state officials have expressed enthusiasm for the program and its results. As of July 20, 33 inmates on parole had taken the course before their release during the six months the program had been in effect. Of that number there were three parole violations. In the first six months of last year 46 inmates were paroled and by July 20, 1955, nine of them had violated their paroles.

Warden Bovey said this indicates that the program is effective. He cautioned, however, that "no one trying to be objective can be very conclusive on the present basis."

Board Revamped

Another function of the Penitentiary which has undergone considerable revamping is the disciplinary board. This board which is composed of the deputy warden, senior captain and a non-uniformed employe has become much more effective, according to Warden Bovey. The board's purpose is to mete out justice to those inmates who have committed some infraction of the prison rules.

LAST OF SERIES

This is the fourth and final of a series of articles in which The Star has given a detailed report on changes at the Nebraska Penitentiary since the 1955 riots and the cost of those changes.

Warden Bovey says that with the integration of the rehabilitation program and the guard-training program the morale at the institution has shown a marked improvement.

The improvements in these specific programs for inmates combined with an increased staff, higher Standards for personnel and the building projects which have improved facilities, have added up to a smoother operation and higher efficiency which the Board of Control believes justifies the higher costs.

Warden Bovey says the changes have been "very effective". He declared, "People who know institutions say the whole atmosphere has changed for the better at the Nebraska Penitentiary."

Deputy Warden John Greenholtz concurs with Bovey's statements about the institution. Particularly impressed with the orientation program for inmates, Greenholtz averred. "I wish we'd had that ten years ago."

With adoption of the new program for inmates, the new construction and the increases in size and salary of staff, nearly all of the reforms in administration of the prison suggested by Col. B. B. Albert have been instituted. Col. Albert was hired by the Board of Control as director of penal and correctional institutions and held the post from February to December, 1955, at a salary based on $9,000 annually.

Suit Challenging York School Election Opens Monday

YORK, Neb. (AP) — A suit challenging the validity of the May 15 school bond election, involving a bond issue of $575,000, will be heard in District Court beginning Monday.

District Judge H. Emerson Kokjr of Wahoo will preside.

Raymond D. Haggard, contestant, charges irregularities in the bond election including illegal voters and non-conformity with election laws by the school board when it opened and counted the mail vote the night of the election.

The mail vote gave 33 votes for the bond issue and six against—sufficient to give the proposal the required 55 per cent of the vote by the narrow margin of three votes.

The tally, without the mail votes, was 1,570 for and 1,299 against—seven votes shy of the required majority.

The May 16 election was the fourth within a 15-month period at which a special bond issue had been submitted.

Testimonial Dinner Set For Sorrell

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb. — A dutch lunch meeting of Otoe County voters was held here for the purpose of discussing bi-partisan support for Frank Sorrell of Syracuse, Democratic candidate for governor.

At the meeting it was decided to hold a testimonial dinner in Nebraska City on September 19 with the proceeds going to Sorrell's personal campaign fund. The meeting indicated Otoe County will support in a bi-partisan way a candidate for a major office.

Wayne Levy Cut

WAYNE, Neb —The Wayne County Board set a tax levy of 5 mills, a cut from last year's 6.18, to raise $132,538.

Fairbury Meters May Be Removed For Trial Period

FAIRBURY, Neb. (AP) — The finance and police committees of the Fairbury City Council are studying the possibility of taking out Fairbury's parking meters for a six months trial period.

Mayor John Aasen turned the matter over to the committees after results of a poll on the proposal taken by a group of businessmen.

Of 124 signers, 108 expressed a desire to have the meters removed on a trial basis and 16 were opposed.

Kolar Appointed To Wahoo Church; Leaving Seward

SEWARD, Neb. — The Rev. Edward Kolar, pastor of St Vincent's Catholic Church of Seward the past six years, has been appointed by Bishop Louis B Kucera to be pastor of St. Wenceslaus Church at Wahoo

Succeeding Father Kolar at Seward will be the Rev. Edward A. Orzechowski, pastor at Dwight. The new priest is a native of Detroit, and has served at Julian, Doniphan and Brainard, Neb. The Rev. W. Beranek, now at Touhy, will become priest at Dwight

The vacancy at Wahoo resulted from the retirement of Msgr. Matthew Nemec.

Importance Of Mission Work Is Emphasized

Lincoln Star Special

SEWARD, Neb —At the closing session here Thursday morning of the conference of pastors and teachers of the Southern Nebraska District of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, the Rev. Waldo J Werning of Lincoln, newly appointed executive secretary of missions and stewardship of the district, addressed the group on the church's mission program.

"There are strange ideas regarding mission work," he stated. "One is that mission work is not as important as the traditional congregational program. The glory of the local church is that it is not local What changes a local church is the length of its mission vision and the breadth of its evangelistic interests.

"The church in America is losing ground every minute, since there are two more unchurched persons in the U.S. every minute But with the church on the march, this century promises to be the greatest century in mission work since the first century"

The Rev Rudolf Staehr of McCook reported on the rural life commission and the land and job placement service of the district

Stan Delaplane's
POSTCARD

Billy Holiday was singing at The Dunes in Las Vegas. Jimmy Durante was at the Desert Inn. Harry Belafonte was doing the Calypso number at the Riviera. Judy Garland was at the New Frontier.

About ten years ago, Las Vegas was a desert shipping station.

Today it is an oasis of swimming pools, 24-hour gambling, chorus lines, paradise motels, greater-than-paradise hotels The greatest show town in the world. With the highest prices for talent.

Miss Judy Garland was getting $55 000 a week for doing a bit at the New Frontier.

This is considered the tops on Las Vegas prices so far

The Desert Inn paid Noel Coward $35,000. Liberace got $45,000 at the Riviera. Marlene Dietrich got $35,000 at the Sahara.

These are excellent prices. So in the cool of the evening (about 100 degrees), I dusted over to the New Frontier to see what Miss Garland does for $55,000.

It was about 7 o'clock and even then the reserved line stretched completely around the gambling room and about a block up a room corridor.

The waiter captain said the room seated 1000 and was full every night.

The dinner was $7 00. Two shows a night if you want to do the arithmetic.

Miss Garland was backed by a line of 11 boys. She sang 10 numbers and "Swanee" for an encore.

She sang a lot of sad songs — "Happiness Is a Thing Called Joe" "The Boy Next Door." "You Made Me Love You."

Vegas gets a pretty hard audience. A number of people were Hollywood agents and actors and film people. They looked it all over professionally.

I must say Miss Garland gave them their 55 worth, though. They came right out of their seats for her.

"I hear it every night," said my waitress, "and you know what it makes me want to do? Makes me want to go out and have a good cry. Every night. I'm a very sentimental type," she said. "But you wouldn't think it could do that to me every night, would you?"

☆ ☆ ☆

Miss Garland swung the house too with her "Over the Rainbow." She did it sitting on a coffee table In a baby spot and without a microphone.

The weeping waitress sat down on the steps beside me out of the way while she sang.

She nudged me to point out a cool blonde in a white low-cut evening gown across the way.

"Hattie Carnegie number. $275 a copy," she whispered. "When you've worked here as long as I have, you can spot 'em."

☆ ☆ ☆

Miss Garland went out to change her clothes. The waitress got up and went out to change me a $10.

She brought it back in Las Vegas fashion. A $5 and five silver dollars. As soon as they stopped jingling, she fell on the $5 like a football player on a loose ball.

I stabbed her with the salad fork, got the fin and gave her two silver bullets. She didn't seen hurt or surprised. Just philosophical about it.

Miss Garland came back and sang: "Rock-a-bye Your Baby with a Dixie Melody."

"When do you go out for the cry?" I asked the waitress.

"I don't go out at all," she said. "I just feel like it. They don't give you time to cry around here. We have to get ready for the next show."

Uehling School Redistricting Plans Fail

Petitions Short 20 Signatures

UEHLING, Neb. (AP) — Hopes of putting a proposed 10-district area school merger plan into effect this fall have been abandoned by the Uehling board of education.

A letter sent to the 10 districts formally released four which had approved the plan because the assessed valuation of these districts plus the Uehling district was only $203,167, a figure more than a million dollars short of the minimum assessed valuation goal specified in petitions to put the merger plan into effect.

Districts which had approved the plan and which were released from commitments in their petitions were Nos. 17 and 67 in Dodge County and 49 to 59 in Burt County. Backers of the proposal said less than 20 additional signatures were needed to put the plan across. Uehling District No 49 will continue to operate its present school program unchanged.

More Southeast Rains

Scattered showers and thunderstorms are forecast for Friday afternoon from Texas to Maine and down the Atlantic Coast to North Carolina. Rainfall is likely also in the northern Great Plains. Little change of temperature is seen, with the West enjoying fair weather and much of the rest of the nation hot and humid. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Cooper Hopes For Increase In State Legion To 60,000

HUMBOLDT, Neb. — "I intend to continue current policies initiated two years ago and put into practice last year," John R. Cooper, newly elected commander of the Nebraska American Legion said Thursday.

Cooper also said he hopes to increase state membership in the Legion to "a minimum of 60,000."

A member of the combat engineers during World War II, Cooper served as an instructor at Fort Warren, Cheyenne, Wyo., and Camp Beale, near Sacramento, Calif.

"I went in as a private and came out as a private," Cooper said.

Executive vice president of the O. A. Cooper Co., a feed and grain firm, Cooper is very active in civic and church affairs.

Active In Scout Work

He is a member of the executive committee of the Cornhusker Council of Boy Scouts, chairman of the Richardson County chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, chairman of the Richardson County Selective Service Board and on the board of directors for the Better Nebraska Association.

He is on the executive board of the Episcopal Church, the board of directors for the new Clarkson Hospital in Omaha, and a member of the American Feed Managers Association.

Cooper is first vice president of the Nebraska Grain Improvement Association.

He is married and has two children, Mrs. J. E. Babcock of Scottsbluff, and Jack, a February graduate of Kansas State College, who is now in the service. He also has a granddaughter.

Barn On Waverly Farm Destroyed

WAVERLY, Neb.—A barn on the Richard Otley farm about four miles southeast of here burned to the ground Thursday afternoon.

Otley estimated the loss at $4,000. He said more than 300 bales of hay in the barn were destroyed but that no livestock was lost.

Otley gave faulty wiring as a possible cause. Two fire trucks from Waverly and one from Lincoln were sent to fight the blaze. Otley said he believed the loss is covered by insurance.

Falls City Man Electrocuted

FALLS CITY, Neb. (AP) — Alex Thompson, about 70, retired Falls City painter, was electrocuted Thursday while cleaning up debris from a heavy wind and rain storm which hit the city.

Thompson was killed instantly when he grabbed a hot wire while engaged in a clean-up job with his neighbors. Trees and wires were down throughout the city from the Wednesday night storm.

He is survived by his widow.

Had Church Wedding

MRS. RAY H. DOERMANN

The marriage of Miss Kathryn Emilie Jensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hartvig Jensen of Omaha, to Ray H. Doermann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Doermann, took place on Saturday, Aug. 4, at St. Luke's Lutheran Church in Omaha. In the presence of 225 guests, the ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. A. H. Pinkall.

As her sister's maid of honor, Miss Jo Ann Jensen appeared in a frock of nylon net and lace over taffeta in the coral shade. A snug jacket of lace covered the strapless bodice, and the full skirt of ruffle-trimmed net was worn over hoops. She wore a head bandeau of frock-toned carnations and carried a bouquet of the blossoms. Wearing identical costumes in rose and cotillion blue were the bridesmaids, Miss Doris Imig and Miss Barbara Symonsbergen of Omaha. Miss Patty Ann Syla, Omaha, was the junior bridesmaid, and the flower girl was Miss Peggy Klaasmeyer, Dunbar.

Ray Tucker of Wichita, Kan., served Mr. Doermann as best man, and the ushers were Harvey Jensen, Omaha, and Frederick Wellsandt, Talmage. Jerry Tucker of Wichita was the ring bearer.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of white tulle and Chantilly-type lace over satin. A high, pointed collar and long, tapered sleeves accented the sculptured lace bodice, and beneath the slim waist, deep founces of tulle edged with lace formed the wide skirt which was completed by a front panel of the lace. Her illusion veil was held to the head by a plateau cap of tulle patterned with pearls, and she carried a white Bible ornamented with a cluster of gardenias and valley-lilies.

Upon their return from a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Doermann will make their home in Omaha.

To Be Bride

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. James S. McGregor of Ogden, Utah, of the betrothal and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Agatha McGregor of La Crescenta, Calif., formerly of Lincoln, to Asa A. Crapo, Fairview, Wyo.

The ceremony will be solemnized on Friday, Aug. 31, at the Temple of Latter Day Saints, Salt Lake City, and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents in Ogden.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to the Pacific northwest, Mr. Crapo and his bride will reside at 3222 Honolulu Ave., in La Crescenta.

During her residence in Lincoln, Miss McGregor was a member of the nursing staff at the Veterans Hospital, and served as president of the Lincoln Business and Professional Women's Club.

Plan Picnic

Planning a picnic luncheon for Friday noon are the Matronettes of the Havelock YWCA Center, who will meet at Havelock Park. All members and their children are invited to attend and are asked to bring table service, sandwiches and a covered dish for each family group.

Following the luncheon, program plans for the coming year will be discussed.

Hostesses will be the following new officers of the group: Mrs. Robert W. Bridges, president; Mrs. J. G. Wright, vice president; Mrs. K. A. Marshall, treasurer; and Mrs. A. B. Brunke, secretary.

The Week-End Brings News Of Guests

THE WEEK-END holds more than a large promise of activity, and not because of any tremendous social calendar, but because of the guests who have come — or are coming —

Next Tuesday will be homecoming day for Miss Lois Srb who, if lucky, will arrive just in the nick of time for the wedding of her brother, Arthur Srb, and Miss Helen Howard, which will be solemnized at the Tabernacle Christian Church at 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening.

Miss Srb, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Miss Phyllis Loudon, Delta Gamma, both former coeds at Nebraska, will plane in from Europe late Monday. Miss Loudon after a brief stay, will fly directly on to the west coast where she will visit her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Roy Loudon, formerly of Lincoln, before going to Palo Alto, Calif., where both she and Miss Srb are members of the public schools faculty.

The travelers planed off to Europe on June 26, and have visited all of the interesting places in numerous countries.

* * *

BUT there is more news of the Srb family — Arriving in Lincoln on Monday will be Richard Srb who is coming from Munich, Germany where as a member of the University of Maryland faculty, he has been developing an educational service for American service men and their dependents. Mr. Srb, although now in Munich, also has taught in Scotland, England, and in the areas where the University of Maryland felt the educational service was needed. Mr. Srb has been abroad for the past six years, and this is his first trip home since his trip to Lincoln four years ago.

Another guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Srb is their son, Arthur, of Bismark, N. D. Srb, whose marriage to Miss Helen Howard will take place next Tuesday evening, arrived on Wednesday.

* * *

SPEAKING of brides and weddings — Someone told us that Mrs. Lyle Holland will be a luncheon hostess on Friday, Aug. 17, when she entertains at the Lincoln Country Club in courtesy to Miss Kay Kinsey whose marriage to Jerry Hall of Omaha will take place on Sept. 21. The bride-elect will be presented with a pottery shower.

* * *

BUT back to the week-end guest list—Understand that Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg Wilson and their 10 months-old son, Chris, will be arriving this week-end from Durham, N.C., to spend three weeks as the guests of Mr. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earle B. Wilson. There is the possibility that Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will take time out from their visit here to spend a few days in Colorado—leaving young Chris with his grandparents—But there are no definite plans for Colorado as yet.

* * *

WE DO know, however, that Mrs. Earle B. Wilson has plans for Tuesday morning—She will be hostess at a 10:30 o'clock coffee at her home in courtesy to her daughter-in-law.

TUESDAY, Aug. 14, also is the day Mrs. Joe Carroll has chosen for the party she has planned in honor of her niece, Miss Carroll Ann Griffin whose marriage to Donald Dischner will be solemnized on Sept. 8. Mrs. Carroll has invited 18 guests for a dessert supper and a linen shower.

* * *

FROM Philadelphia comes news of the arrival of Tieg (pronounced Tag) Stepanek Hogan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hogan, on Thursday, Aug. 2. Mrs. Hogan is the former Lennie Stepanek, daughter of Mrs. Orin Stepanek and the late Prof. Stepanek.

Mrs. Stepanek, by the way, already has gone to Philadelphia to extend a personal greeting to her grandson, and also to keep an eye on her young granddaughter, Paula.

THE STAR IN SUBURBIA

South Hills is always a busy community but this week the little red book is filled with news of travelers and holiday-seekers.

One of our South Hills families, Mr. and Mrs. L. Roy Warren, Don, Bill, Susan and Jimmy, whose desire was to spend their summer vacation leisurely fishing, swimming and boating, found that Lake Delavan in Wisconsin was the perfect spot. Mrs. Warren's mother Mrs. Richard Derricott of Kansas City, Mo., joined the family for several days and completing the family group were Mrs. Warren's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Sweeney, and their four sons, of Rockford, Ill. The smallest Warren, Johnnie, did not accompany his family to Wisconsin but remained in Lincoln as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Mangold until his parents' return last Saturday.

Home again after spending a wonderful month fishing at Platte Lake near Traverse City, Mich., are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gould, Robbie and Scottie, who were the houseguests of Mrs. Gould's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wenger, at their home near Platte Lake.

Wish we could have joined Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Stall, Jr., Rod and Shelley, and Mr. and Mrs. Myrel Ifland, Robby and Sandy, when they took off recently for their summer journey to Park Rapids, Minn. Mr. Stall, Mr. Ifland and the small-fry spent most of the vacation time fishing at Long Lake near Park Rapids, but the Stall family also took time to visit Mr. and Mrs. Roy Benshoff and their son, Bart, at St. Paul, Minn., before returning home.

It's always fun for the little tots to dress in their favorite party dresses and lacy frills (and neatly-pressed suits for the young gentlemen) and to attend a birthday party for one of their small friends. Neighborhood youngsters who helped Miss Arden Dodge celebrate her fifth birthday anniversary on Tuesday afternoon were Miss Ann Harvey, Miss Judy Thompson, Miss Karen Thompson, Miss Arlene Smith, Miss Loretta Howard, Miss Debbie Howard, Miss Mary Ann Holden, Miss Maureen Lally, Miss Kathy Aenchbacher, Miss Kathy Schrawger, Miss Stephanie Hudkins, Gary Hull, Robbie Gould and the honoree's brothers, Gregg and Michael. Arden is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hale Dodge.

To return to the South Hills travelers, we must mention that Mr. and Mrs. Roy Highberg, Scott and Bruce, are vacationing in Minnesota and plan to return home in three weeks.

And traveling to South Hills this week was Miss Lona Rae Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roswill Johnson, who arrived on Monday from Shenandoah, Ia., where she has been a member of the nursing staff at Hand Community Hospital. After spending a month with her parents, Miss Johnson will leave the first of September to begin her duties at the Methodist Hospital in Omaha.

Mention of the Johnsons reminds us that they will be week-end guests at the Paul Opocensky residence in Omaha where they will attend the wedding of the Opocensky's daughter, Carolyn, to Carrol Macrander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Macrander on Sunday afternoon, Aug. 12. Miss Johnson will attend Miss Opocensky as maid of honor, and Mrs. Johnson will assist as hostess at the reception following the ceremony. The Johnsons will go to Omaha on Friday and will attend the pre-nuptial dinner at the Opocensky home, Saturday evening.

And traveling last week were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kissinger, Stephen and Debra, who went to Atkinson to attend a reunion and picnic of the Kissinger family held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Kissinger.

Officers Of Local Tops Clubs

Newly-elected officers of the four Tops Clubs in Lincoln met Thursday evening at the Havelock YWCA Center to set club goals for the coming year.

Organized as groups to encourage their members in weight-reduction, the clubs set goals by estimating the number of pounds the total membership must lose during the year. The reducing regimen of each member is under the supervision of her personal physician, and when she attains her own goal, she joins the ranks of KOPS (Keep Off Pounds Sensibly).

Will Attend Convention

Planning to attend the national convention of Sigma Alpha Iota, national professional music sorority, will be Miss Mary Jane Waggoner and Miss Marguerite Klinker of Lincoln, and Miss Phyllis Malony of Council Bluffs, Ia., president of the active chapter of the sorority at the University of Nebraska.

Miss Waggoner, who is a member of the faculty of the University of Nebraska School of Music, serves as province president of the sorority's mid-west area. Miss Klinker is president of the Lincoln alumnae chapter.

The convention, to be held at Washington, D. C., Aug. 16 to 20, will be highlighted by concerts to be given by nationally-known members of the sorority, and by a series of workshops to be conducted by noted composers and concert artists

A benefit concert for the sorority's Foundation will be presented by Mildred Miller of the Metropolitan Opera, and a special program will be presented by the Elizabeth Sprague Coolidge Foundation which will feature the Claremont String Quartet

Fish Fry Follows Big Catch

Following a most successful fishing trip at the Great Slave Lake in Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Lind entertained several of their friends at a fish fry at their home on Tuesday evening, Aug. 7. The guests not only were served fish that Mr. Lind had caught, but also learned of the 30½ pound lake trout which Mr. Lind caught at about the 64th parallel in the Arctic Circle.

Seated at the table are, (left to right) Mrs. Wayne Cooper, Donald Riley, Mrs. Wendall Graham, Willard Beck, Mrs. Wallace Lamphere, Elmer Blende, Wayne Cooper, Mrs. Elmer Blende, Dr. Wallace Lamphere, Mrs. Willard Beck, Wendall Graham, and Mrs. Don Riley. Standing behind the table are (left to right) Mr. and Mrs. John E. Grasmick, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lind.

Hoover Sees Brighter Peace Prospects

Former President Is 82 Today

. . . 12-Hour Work Day

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Prospects of peace are "better" today than they were four years ago," ex-President Herbert Hoover said as he prepared to celebrate his 82nd birthday Friday with his customary 12-hour work day.

I have no estimate at all" of when peace might come to the world, Hoover told a press conference, "but certainly the tension is much less" than it was four years ago

Hoover

Hoover declined to talk politics. He said he would cover that subject thoroughly in his "third farewell speech to the Republicans" at the convention opening here Aug 20 This will be the sixth consecutive GOP convention for the ex-President Twice before the senior Republican statesman made farewell speeches His last previous goodbye was in 1952 when he intimated advancing years would prevent his return.

Greatest Problem

The only indication he gave of the subject of his address, came when a reporter asked· "What's the greatest problem facing this country today?"

"That's exactly what I'm going to talk about" at the convention, he answered. But declined to elaborate.

Hoover, one of the four longest lived of American Presidents, did have advice for other oldsters: "Find some other job."

He also said

1. He's writing a book on his World War I activities, "The only activity in the American government that I know of that has not been investigated by Congress." "It's going to be quite a book," and should be finished in a year.

2. It's "utterly impossible" for government to be as efficient as private business, largely because of the necessary protection of government employes in their jobs

3. It is possible to reverse the vast growth of the U. S. government which has seen the budget swell from 4 billion dollars a year in his administration to 70 billion today and federal employes increase five times to 2½ million.

20 Million Saving

4. Simplification of the government's 21 million documents a year as a result of the second Hoover Commission on Government Reorganization is saving "20 million dollars a year and we've only just made a start."

Morris Plans Friday Filing For Governor

George L. Morris, former superintendent of the Mea‿s Reformatory, said he planned to file Friday as an independent candidate for governor "if the petitions from Omaha arrive in time"

Morris said he already has petitions bearing about 1,200 signatures, but expects additional petitions from Omaha to give him three or four hundred more signatures

He said he would file at a later date if the Omaha petitions did not reach him Friday. The deadline is in October.

Only 1,000 signatures are recuired to put the name of an independent candidate for governor on the ballot.

Morris said he waited until he had more "because they'll throw out some" in the check which must be made in the secretary of state's office.

He will oppose Gov Anderson, nominated in May for a second term on the Republican ticket, and Frank Sorrell of Syracuse, Democratic nominee.

A sharp critic of the Anderson administration, Morris was replaced as reformatory superintendent in September, 1955, after a riot and fires at the institution. He had been critical of the handling of similar incidents at the Penitentiary by the state administration and the Board of Control.

Whisker King At Wymore

This gentleman is Lou Wittmuss of Wymore and those whiskers won him the "best trimmed beard" championship at the Wymore Diamond Jubilee. It seems that all you need to be popular with the girls these days is a manly beard. At least, Liana Ottersberg (left) and Eunice Rae Peters (right) seem to find the beard attractive. Fred Migatt, also of Wymore, won the full beard championship when the Brothers of the Brush were judged. The celebration ends Friday and off come the beards. (Staff Photo)

Board Announces Increases In Sheriff's Office Salaries

Salary increases in the Lancaster County sheriff's office "bringing county wages in line with other local law enforcement officers" were announced Thursday by the County Board.

The Board also named LaVerne Hughes to the newly-created position of "office engineer" in the county engineer's office at a monthly salary of $350.

Hughes was receiving $300 a month as the office's head draftsman.

Effective Sept. 1

The Board said the new salaries, as recommended by Sheriff Merle Karnopp, would be effective Sept. 1.

Monthly salary increases for tax deputies are Lyle Jewett, $290 to $320, and Leonard Shaeffer, $295 to $320.

Deputy salary increases are: Robert Anderson $310 to $330; Ronald Burns, $275 to $300; Frank Jacox, $295 to $305; Bill Johnson, $275 to $300, Frank Steinacher, $285 to $305; Del Zieman, $310 to $330.

Jailers' Salaries

Adjusted salaries for jailers were Claude Gibson as head jailer, $265 to $285; Ted Autry, $265 to $275, and Andrew Maser, $265 to $275.

The new salary schedules were announced as the commissioners continued work on the 1956-57 county budget.

Board Chairman Russell Brehm said the commissioners hope to complete the budget and determine the county levy by Friday.

The Board is aiming at a levy reduction from 5.83 mills.

Anderson Says Campbell May Get Promotion

Col John M. Campbell, commanding officer of the Nebraska National Air Guard, is in line for promotion to brigadier general, Governor Anderson revealed Thursday.

Campbell

The governor praised Campbell's work as head of the state's Air Guard unit as well as the Air Guard itself.

"When there is a top-qualified man heading an organization,' Anderson said, "the results is a first class operation."

"We can really be proud of our entire National Guard,' the governor stated.

Anderson was at Fort Knox, Ky., Wednesday where he reviewed 480 members of Nebraska Guard tank units which are undergoing summer training. The governor was in Casper, Wyo., last week visiting Air Guard units and will go to Fort Ripley, Minn., next week to inspect ground forces

GENERAL STRIKE IS STAGED

. . . Hanging Aftermath

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Greek Cypriots staged a general strike Thursday in island-wide protest against the hanging of three of their countrymen by the British. Two bombs exploded in the garden of a Nicosia club run for British soldiers. There were no casualties.

The three youths died on the gallows in Nicosia prison shortly after 1 a m. for rebel acts against British rule.

Six hours later embittered Greek Cypriots who make up four-fifths of the island's 500,000 population began the strike and quickly halted nearly all activity. Only the island's 100,000 Turks appeared to be going about their normal business.

Bases Affected

There were indications the strike might last until Monday. Among the projects hit were British military bases where construction is in full swing to build up the island as Britain's last big stronghold in the eastern Mediterreanean.

Most important of these were the 33-million-dollar Royal Air Force base at Akrotiri, near the south coast and a 28-million-dollar joint headquarters for Britain's Middle East land, sea and air forces. The air force base employs 2,200 Greek construction workers and the headquarters project 1,600.

Dr. Craig Matter Is Turned Over To Congressmen

WINSIDE, Neb —C. B. Misfeldt of Winside, leader in the petition drive to have the four-month prison sentence of Dr. Donald O. Craig suspended, said the case has been turned over for study to Rep. R. D. Harrison and Sens. Carl Curtis and Roman Hruska.

Residents of this vicinity are seeking the congressmen's advice on what further action may be taken in connection with petition-signing action seeking suspension of the Winside physician's sentence for income tax evasion.

Misfeldt said no report has been received as yet from any of the congressmen.

None of the three were available for comment Thursday.

Petitions are still in circulation and may be called in early next week, Misfeldt said.

Inmate Given Year For Escape

Clifford Tritt, 25, Nebraska Penitentiary inmate from Fairbury, was given an additional year by the Lancaster District Court for prison escape.

Tritt pleaded guilty to escaping July 28 when he "climbed the fence" while working in the kitchen of the prison dormitory.

He was picked up near Emerald west of Lincoln shortly afterward by the Safety Patrol.

Tritt was serving a four-year term for robbery given in November, 1954, from Jefferson County. He had served a previous Wyoming prison term for extortion.

Judge Paul White pronounced the escape term consecutive to the inmate's present term.

Ike Eyes Federal Action To Aid Small Businesses

WASHINGTON (AP) — A series of government actions to help small business was urged by a Cabinet committee Thursday and President Eisenhower said he would give the proposals the "prompt and favorable consideration they deserve."

One of the 14 recommendations submitted unanimously by the President's Committee on Small Business would entail tax relief amounting to 600 million dollars the first year.

Eisenhower said he would follow through, both by executive action and in drafting his legislative program for the 85th Congress convening in January.

Nine of the proposals would require congressional action in the tax, antitrust, financing and other fields. Others are designed to assure small companies a bigger share of government contracts.

Most Important

A high White House official told newsmen the seven-member Cabinet group considers two of the tax plans "most important" in helping small concerns meet competition. These were:

1. A one-third cut in the tax rate on the first $25,000 of a corporation's income. This would make the initial rate 20 per cent instead of 30 per cent, but would leave the tax on additional income at the present 52 per cent level.

2. Legislation giving businesses the right to use the rapid writeoff for depreciation, contained in the 1954 tax law, for purchases of used equipment. At present only new equipment purchases entitle a firm to the rapid depreciation deduction.

Of the first plan the committee report said:

"It would help the smaller firms to retain earnings for financing expansion, or would give them some advantage in pricing. It would generally encourage the formation of new businesses."

Any Formula

It said the second plan would permit a small businessman to use any one of several depreciation formulas under which most of the cost of his equipment could be written off in the first few years after the purchase.

The committee is headed by Arthur F. Burns, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers. The other members are:

Secretary of Defense Wilson, Secretary of Commerce Weeks, Secretary of Labor Mitchell, Mobilization Director Arthur S. Flemming, Housing Administrator Albert M. Cole, and Administrator Wendell B. Barnes of the Small Business Administration.

Erie McNebb Rites Set For Saturday

Funderal services for Erie McNebb, 55, of 425 So. 22nd, will be 10 a.m. Saturday at Hodgman-Splain.

The Rev. R. P. Stringer will officiate. Burial will be in Wyuka.

Mr. McNebb died Thursday. Born in Florida, he had lived in Lincoln for 10 years.'

He was an employe of the Burlington Railroad.

Surviving are his wife, Ruth; sons, Cecil, Erie, and Ed Lee; daughters, Telitha, Ruth Ann and Roseatta, all at home; sister, Mrs. Ida Jordan of Melrose, Fla.

Legislative Group Has No Statement After Meeting

The Legisltaive Council committee on the Institution and Military Building Fund met in executive session at the Statehouse Thursday afternoon and held what one member termed a "stormy session."

No details of the meeting were made available, but Senator Otto Liebers of Lincoln, one of the members of the committee, said the group probably would have a statement to make in about 30 days.

The 10-year building fund, which exists on a 1.1 mill levy, is scheduled to die at the end of this year unless the Legislature decides to extend it.

Woman's Suit Asks $11,561 In Damages

Mrs. Anna Brill of 1024 Y has filed a $11,561.75 suit in Lancaster District Court against the Capital Self-Service Drug at 1211 O and the Colgate-Palmolive Co.

Her petition alleges she purchased at the defendants store a container of spray deodorant product of the defendant company on Dec. 14, 1954.

After using the product, she alleges that her body became swollen and infected and numerous water blisters appeared.

The judgment sought includes $1,561 75 for alleged medical expenses.

Man Fined On Charge Involving Minor, 13

Leo Hibbs, 40, of 2140 Adams was fined $50 in Lancaster County Court after pleading guilty to a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a 13-year-old girl.

Judge Herbert A. Ronin was told Hibbs had been drinking and made indecent suggestions to the girl on Aug. 8, but had not touched her.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Wisbey Defeats Three-Time City King Deurmyer

By RON SPEER
Star Sports Staff Member

Genial Dude Wisbey, one of Hillcrest's top players, rammed home a five-foot putt on the 18th hole Thursday to oust three time champion Herb Deurmyer in the second round of the Men's City Golf tourney at the Lincoln Country club.

Wisbey finished the 17th with a one-hole lead and boomed a good drive down the middle on 18. But Deurmyer matched his shot, although a trifle shorter, and slammed his second shot four feet from the pin.

Wisbey nearly equalled that by coasting in his second shot five feet out. Then he canned the put to end the match and win one up.

Don North and Don Pegler Sr. battled it out in the longest match of the championship flight. They finished the regulation 18 holes all even, and halfed the 19th. Then North dropped an 18-foot putt on the 20th for a birdie and the match.

Top favorites for the city title — Whitie Reed, Bill Mowbray Jr. and Gene Chadwell—all advanced into the quarterfinals.

Mowbray had the roughest time. The 1956 golf king nipped Harry Meginnis one up to stay in contention.

Reed ousted Sam Spomer, 4 and 3, and Chadwell downed promising Tom Ludwig, 2 and 1.

Jr. Legion Final Postponed Again

COLUMBUS (AP)—A heavy rain storm, the fall estimated at two inches or more, brought postponement of the American Legion Junior Baseball championship game between Central City and Hastings Thursday night.

The game was called in the bottom of the third with Hastings at bat and one man on base with the score 0-0. Central City had collected four hits in the first two innings and Hastings had none.

The game was tentatively rescheduled for Friday night if the field is playable.

Lex Takes Lead On 16-5 Triumph

LEXINGTON (AP)—Lexington took the lead in the Nebraska State League by beating Grand Island 16-5 as McCook fell to tailender Hastings 6-1.

The McCook defeat dropped that club into third place while Superior moved from third to second via a 15-3 win over North Platte.

Browns Nearly Two-Touchdown Choice

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP) — Traditionally the glittering harbinger of the gridiron season, the annual All-Star football game Friday night will send the cream of the 1955 collegiate crop against the favored, and revenge—seeking Cleveland Browns.

This 23rd contest in a colorful series will attract an expected 70,000 into huge Soldier Field and will be telecast and broadcast by the American Broadcasting Co. beginning at 7:30 p.m., CST.

Paul Brown, still smarting from a 30-27 upset by the collegians last year, has whipped his National Football League champions almost into regular season sharpness to avert what would be stinging humiliation for the proud Brown boss—two successive All-Star game defeats.

Brown has done such a good job the pros are rated almost a two - touchdown favorite over Coach Curley Lambeau's galaxy of 50 hand-picked collegiate stars.

Lambeau and his aides, on the other hand, complain that time may have run out on them before the All-Stars jelled to their full capabilities.

What makes the All-Stars somewhat a question mark in tonight's battle is the fact Lambeau has not been able to settle on a No. 1 quarterback, like Notre Dame's Ralph Guglielmi last year.

Quarterback Stars

He is bound to get something better than an average job of signal-calling and passing from a quarterback corps including Michigan State's Earl Morrall; Navy's George Welsh, Iowa's Jerry Reichow and Wisconsin's Jim Haluska.

The All-Star running attack has Ohio State's All-America Howie (Hopalong) Cassady as its kingpin, surrounded by such other swift stalwarts as Notre Dame's Don Schaefer, Oklahoma's Bob Burris, Auburn's Joe Childress and Penn State's Lenny Moore.

Considerable interest will be focused, too, on the Browns' quarterbacking, as the pro champions start a second season without the incredible Otto Graham.

The Browns' defeat in the All-Star game last year merely launched a woeful exhibition season and Cleveland didn't get back on the championship trail until Graham was lured from "retirement."

Graham again has retired, supposedly for good, but this year Coach Brown has Babe Parilli, the ex-Green Bay Packer star, available to give Graham's heir-apparent, George Ratterman, some solid competition.

The game again will be played under the pros' free-substitution rule.

The pros hold a 13-7 margin in the series which started in football's low scoring era with a 0-0 tie in 1934 between the All-Stars and the Chicago Bears.

Mantle's Blast Aids Yank Win

WASHINGTON (AP) — New York's league-leading Yankees flung all their plate power against Washington's dragging Senators Thursday and scored a 15-7 slugfest victory in which Mickey Mantle smashed his 39th homer of the season.

Mantle belted his in the seventh, a high one into the left-field bleachers that scored Yogi Berra ahead of him. The clout put the Yankee slugger 11 games ahead of Babe Ruth's pace of 1927, when the Bambino set the record of 60 for a season.

Stan Paces Cards In Split With Braves

MILWAUKEE — Stan Musial batted in three runs Thursday night as the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Milwaukee Braves, 5-1, in the second game of a doubleheader. The Braves took the first game, 4-1, on the three-hit pitching of rookie Taylor Phillips.

The split put the Braves 1½ games ahead of runner-up Brooklyn in the tight National League race and two games in front of third-place Cincinnati.

The Braves used four pitchers, including loser Gene Conley who was chased in the fifth after giving up six hits and four runs. Tom Poholsky went the route for the Cardinals and was touched for eight hits.

A's Sign Shortstop

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Kansas City Athletics Thursday signed Leo Kernica of Chicago, a shorstop, and sent him to their Grand Island Nebraska State League club. He is 22, weighs 178, stands 5-11, and bats and throws righthanded.

He'll Ride Faster Mounts Today

Dave Erb, the Kentucky Derby-winning jockey from York, will ride faster mounts than this one when he returns to Chicago today to ride at Washington Park. The above nag is part of a merry-go-round at the York County Fair, which Erb visited Thursday in his home town. (Star Photo by Frank O'Neill.)

'Temperament Holds Needles Back'

York Gives Dave Erb Big Welcome

YORK — "It's temperament with Needles that keeps him in the back stretch until the last three-eights of a mile", Jockey Dave Erb told York Rotarians Thursday.

"People think I hold him back, but I don't. He's a hard horse to train because he's smart. He is temperamental. It is not breeding or training.

It is simply that he is like his sire, Ponder, who actually set the pattern for the three-year-old Needles.

Needles, with his $575,000 in the till, is undeniably a great horse. The other great three-year-old in America today is Swoon's Son, who will be in the American Derby in Washington, D. C. on Aug. 18 along with Needles.

"I will be on Needles and I believe we can win, but if we don't I hope Swoon's Son does.

"In the Kentucky Derby the time was not particularly good, but when you consider that Needles runs his first five eights of a race at an average of 13 seconds an eighth and then comes in on the final furlongs at an average of 12 seconds or less an eighth, that's runnin'."

"Is it true that a rider often talks to his horse?" a listener asked.

"That's a bit eccentric," said Erb. "If they ever answer me, I'm going to leave."

In an answer to the question of whether or not races are "fixed," he said "Races aren't fixed, you can bet your life on that. There's too much money involved and on a race track there are cameras at four vantage points on the strip. Those pictures are just like reading a letter in your hand. You can bet there's no pulling back on the part of the jockeys and no doping of horses."

Erb arrived at his home town at 10:30 p.m. Wednesday night to be received by countless friends, old and new.

He was driven through the streets of York in an open car, wearing a ring of flowers presented to him by the York County Agriculture Society. Seated beside him were his attractive wife, Beverly, and the couple's, 13-year-old son, David, who came to York from the family home at Phoenix, Ariz., in company with the jockey's sister, Evelyn Grosso and her son Michael.

Greeting Erb at York were his two grandfathers, H. Q. Erb and W. A. Hanchett. Erb's father, Frank, made the trip to Lincoln with the York delegation to meet the 1956 Kentucky Derby's winning jockey when he arrived at the airport.

Wednesday night Erb was presented a plaque from the York County Agriculture Society.

Tabers Place In National Tourney

HICKORY, N.C.—Ed and Matt Taber, both of Lincoln, placed in the National Association of Left-handed Golfers tournament here Thursday.

Matt, who was entered in the championship flight, finished in a tie for 16th place as he shot 74-78-78-78 for a 308 total. His total was 23 strokes back of champion Harry Shoemaker of Signal Mountain, Tenn., who fired a three under par 285.

Ed finished fifth in the senior men's second flight as he fired a final round 89 to finish with 356.

Holdrege Rallies To Nip Kearney

KEARNEY (AP)—Singles by J. C. Martin, Camilio Carreon and Ron Butcher coupled with two stolen bases and a sacrifice that sent a runner from first to third when the latter base was uncovered gave Holdrege two sixth inning runs and a 4-2 win over Kearney in the Nebraska State League Thursday night. Both teams collected seven hits. Holdrege picked up its first run in the second on a balk.

Gold Sox Rally To Gain Split In Doubleheader

By DON BRYANT
Sports Editor, The Star

Lincoln Southpaw Don Rowe became the fourth Lincoln pitcher since the Western League was re-organized in 1947 to pitch a no-hit, no-run game as he whipped the Amarillo Dukes, 1-0, at Sherman Field Thursday night.

Rowe's fete came in the seven-inning opener of a twin bill.

In the nightcap, the Chiefs battled back to tie the score in the eighth inning and blew sky high in the final frame to lose, 8-4.

Thursday night's performance was especially gratifying for the Lincoln lefty.

He won his ninth game on July 2, but since that time he had picked up only one more win, against Pueblo on July 27. And he hadn't finished a game since July 2.

He was stumped, Manager Larry Shepard was stumped and his teammates were stumped. There was talk of "lost confidence" and the like.

But Thursday night Rowe was the iceman himself.

After hurling six innings without being touched for a base hit, he strode to the mound in the seventh with a 1-0 lead, reared back and rifled the ball.

He had to face some toughies in the Amarillo seventh—Art Cuitti, Billy Shields and Chico Herron. But he never batted an eye.

Cuitti fanned and the tension mounted. Shields wiffed on a curve ball and it was a showdown between Rowe and Herron.

First came a ball, then a call strike. Herron took a healthy cut at the next offering and missed. Don looked into Catcher Joe Zavattaro and got his sign. It was the right one.

In whistled a snapping curve ball. Herron watched it go by and Plate Umpire Gene Haack bellowed, "Strike Three."

And in the next instant a grinning Rowe was mobbed by his Chief teammates, led by Manager Larry Shepard—not usually given to outbursts of exhilaration when his boys do something exciting.

Ironically, it was Rowe who provided his winning run.

It came in the third inning as Bill Jackson opened with a double. After Zavattaro fanned, Rowe lashed a single to right field, scoring Jackson.

DON ROWE . . . First no-hitter

He took care of things from there.

Only three Gold Sox reached base during the contest. Shields was clipped with a pitch in the second, Herron walked in the fifth and John Goodell got a free pass in the sixth. Both Shields and Herron reached second on infield outs before they died, while Goodell never left first.

Don had the Gold Sox hitting on the ground or popping up for the

Dodgers Beat Pirates, Dick Hall; Campy Out

PITTSBURGH (AP)— The Brooklyn Dodgers edged back to within 1½ games of the National League lead Thursday with a 7-3 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates as first-place Milwaukee split a twi-night pair with St. Louis.

More important, the Dodgers cut the Braves' advantage in the "lost" column to two games while having played one more game than Milwaukee.

Brooklyn's early offense was aided by three Pittsburgh errors, and reinforced by a masterful relief pitching job on the part of Ed Roebuck.

Roebuck relieved Carl Erskine in the 5th with the score 6-3, two on and none out. He allowed only two hits the rest of the way. One of the eight Pittsburgh hits was Frank Thomas' 17th homer of the season, off Erskine in the fourth.

The Brooklyn clubhouse showed both bad news and good news for Dodger followers. Catcher Roy Campanella was absent because of a hand injury and is expected to be sidelined for several days. Rube Walker took up the catching chores despite a sore back, and the Dodgers indicated they will seek some assistance for him in the minors.

POINT BLANK

* * *

By Don Bryant

Sports Editor, The Star

"Boy, you sure got yourselves a fine football staff," the fellow said. "You ought to be mighty happy."

Since the speaker happened to be Jack Venable, Amarillo's ace relief artist, I was stumped for a minute.

Baseball players aren't much on talking football, let alone interested in coaching staffs.

Chuck Stevens, manager of the Gold Sox, chimed in:

"You're talking to an old Sooner. He's an expert on Oklahoma football."

That helped throw a little light on the subject. And between Stevens and Venable, the full story came out.

Jack is a former Oklahoma football player — late Dewey (Snorter) Luster and early Jim Tatum era — and is acquainted with Dee Andros and Bill Jennings, present Nebraska assistants.

"Dee and I were teammates at Oklahoma and there isn't a finer guy around," Jack said sincerely.

"I'll tell you one thing," he continued. "You're in clover with that staff you've got now. Not only are they all fine guys, but they've got tremendous technical know-how and the ability to teach it.

"I'm serious when I say, you couldn't have gotten a better staff anywhere."

Jack was impressed by the fact that Jennings joined the Nebraska staff assembled by Headman Pete Elliott.

"It's a tribute to Pete and to Nebraska that Bill decided to come here," the Gold Sox chucker said.

"He was a great backfield coach at Oklahoma —none better — but he had retired from coaching. He was in business.

"The fact that he came out of coaching retirement to join Elliott at Nebraska proves that he thinks football is going to go places here. I know he wouldn't have returned to coaching just anywhere. He came here because he believed in it," Jack said.

Then Jack added a post script, which many Nebraskans are beginning to realize as truth even before Elliott's first term. He said:

"I really think you're sitting pretty. You'll never regret bringing such a great bunch of guys to Nebraska."

As was to be expected, we finally got around to baseball and Stevens offered the opinion that the rapid climb of the Gold Sox wasn't entirely a surprise to him.

"I honestly think that we would have done much better earlier in the year if it wasn't for the Amarillo park," he said. "It's just murder there because so many routine outs sail over the short fences."

But he added that "our pitching has really improved and things are looking a lot better."

Venable reported that he's been tagged for 25 home runs this year and 24 of them have been at Amarillo.

Stevens added some more astounding evidence: Mike Coen, Ken Yoke, Hugh Blanton and Venable — all good Western League pitchers — have yielded 56 home runs between them, with 54 of them being whacked in the Gold Sox park.

"Maybe you think I'm not looking forward to the big, new park that's being built," Chuck said. "It's going to be a fine place — a real credit to baseball anywhere."

Then he grinned and added: "And I'm going to hold out for a clause in my 1957 contract that will insure me of being able to light the first match to burn down the old park."

Floyd Hoffman of Lincoln asks: "What counts in figuring outfielder's fielding averages. If misproperly handled hits, allowing a runner to advance, are errors, do properly handled balls help his percentage as a 'chance?'"

Comment: All hit balls handled by the defensive man count as chances. Fielding averages are computed by dividing the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

McCook Hit, Loses Lead

McCOOK (AP) — Hastings, the tail ender, knocked McCook out of the Nebraska State League lead Thursday night with a 6 to 1 win as Joe Griffiths pitched three hit ball and Ron Mauro and Norman Watson hit home runs. Griffiths fanned six. The game was stopped in the ninth by rain.

Felker's Hurling Aids Superior Win

SUPERIOR (AP) — Bill Felker pitched no hit ball until the seventh inning as Superior hammered North Platte, 15-3, in the Nebraska State League Thursday night.

Felker gave up one hit in the seventh, then walked four men and allowed two more hits in the eighth for North Platte's three runs.

Superior sewed up the game early and was led by Jim Hall and Ed Mieczkowski, both of whom had triples.

most part. Only three balls went out of the infield into the waiting gloves of outfielders.

Other Lincoln no-hitters have been turned in by Mason Bowes in 1952, Norman (Bunn) Bell in 1953 and Ortnibal (Andy) Anderson in 1954. Andy's no-hitter came in his only pitching start of the year and he was beaten, 1-0, in seven innings.

In posting his 11th win against five losses, Rowe fanned six—with three coming when they were needed the most.

Much to the regret of the Chiefs the second game didn't have such a happy ending.

Amarillo took advantage of Lincoln's unpredictable pitching to score five runs in the ninth inning to move once again five and a half games ahead of the Chiefs in the second-half race.

After the Gold Sox, behind Ken Yoke, took a 3-0 lead off Myron Hoffman it looked like a long evening. And rain drove many fans to the parking lot in the seventh.

But the Chiefs' favorite weapon was brought to bear in the eighth. Dick Stuart was safe on a fielder's choice and Reggie Grenald drew a walk.

Gold Sox Manager Chuck Stevens called in his ace Mike Coen to pitch to Bill Jackson—and he did, a gopher ball that tied up the contest.

Jack Venable was then rushed to the scene and he retired the Chiefs without further damage.

But Goodell rocked Bill Nordberg—who had relieved Hoffman in the seventh—with a home run to lead off the ninth and the rout was on.

Wininger Seven Under In 'World' Tournament

By BOB GLASS

CHICAGO (INS) — Long hitting Bo Wininger of Oklahoma City butchered men's par by seven strokes with a blazing 65 Thursday to take the first round lead in the "World" championship Golf Tournament.

Bo was just one stroke better than steady Cary Middlecoff of Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., and veteran Ernie Ball of Oak Park, Ill., who fired 66s.

The battle for the $50,000 first-place jackpot was being hotly contested as no less than 47 of the 93 male pros bettered men's par of 72 at the 6,915-yard Tam O'Shanter Country Club.

In the women's ranks of the tourney which has posted an unprecedented top cash award of $5,000 to the eventual winner, 21-year-old Mickey Wright of Chula Vista, Calif., staged a brilliant opening round 71, five under women's par.

She has a two-stroke edge over veterans Betty Jameson of San Antonio, Tex., Alice Bauer of Grossingers, N.Y., and Louise Suggs of Sea Island, Ga.

Par Takes Beating

In the men's ranks, with $10,000 going to the runnerup and $5,000 to the third-place finisher, par took one of its worst beatings in Tam history.

Bill Nary of Wayne, Mich., George Bayer of Grossingers, N.Y., Ted Kroll of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., and Pete Cooper of Birmingham, Mich., toured the course in 67s.

In the men amateur ranks, George Stanovich of Niles, Ill., shot a 70 to take a four-stroke advantage. Wanda Sanches of Baton Rouge, La., leads the female amateurs with a 78.

Klu's Homer Beats Cubs

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Redlegs resorted to their favorite weapon — the home run—again Thursday to come from behind and defeat the Chicago Cubs 5 to 3.

Until the eighth, Cincinnati had scored only once off bonus pitcher Don Kaiser, and that was a home run in the second inning by Ernie Bailey—his 19th. Then, with two out and Frank Robinson on base, Ted Kluszewski drove his 27th homer of the season over the right-field screen to tie the game.

NSL Slate Is Altered

KEARNEY (AP) — Harold George, executive secretary of the Nebraska State League, Thursday announced these baseball schedule changes:

Lexington at Kearney, postponed from Aug. 3 to Aug. 26. Two games will be played starting at 5 p.m.

Superior at Holdrege, postponed from Aug. 2 to Aug. 25, afternoon doubleheader.

Grand Island at Holdrege, postponed from Aug. 6 to Aug. 19; doubleheader.

Due to the Phelps County Fair and the bleacher situation at the Holdrege Fairgrounds, resulting from a recent fire, the Holdrege Club has arranged this exchange of dates with North Platte:

Aug. 14, Holdrege at North Platte, instead of North Platte at Holdrege.

Aug. 29, North Platte at Holdrege, instead of Holdrege at North Platte.

Chicago Ties 'Plunking' Record

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago White Sox routed Early Wynn in a six run seventh inning Thursday to whip the Cleveland Indians 9 2 and drop them into third place in the American League race.

During the seventh inning the Sox equalled the major league record for number of players on one team hit by pitched balls in a single season. When Art Houtteman, in relief for Early Wynn, hit Orestes Minoso with a pitch, it raised the Sox total of hit batsmen to 39. This ties the mark set by Washington in 1921. Minoso has been the target of 18 of the "plunkings."

The Sox had only a 3-2 lead until the big blowoff in the sixth which brought them their fourth straight victory. After walks to Larry Doby and Jim Rivera, sandwiching a single by Minoso, had loaded the bases, Sherm Lollar singled for two runs Walt Dropo's sacrifice fly scored Rivera, and when Fred Hatfield singled, Houtteman replaced Wynn.

Jack Harshman, the winning pitcher, singled, scoring Lollar and sending Hatfield to third from where he scored on Luis Aparicio's sacrifice bunt. Doby's single counted Harshman with the final run.

Zernial, Boyer Pace Athletics

DETROIT (AP) — Home runs by big Gus Zernial and Cletus Boyer carried the Kansas City Athletics to a 5-3 triumph over the Detroit Tigers Thursday and broke a six-game losing streak for the last-place A's.

Zernial's home run, his 13th, came in the first inning with two mates aboard. Boyer hit his in the second and it was the first of his major league career.

The Athletics wound up their scoring in the third inning against starter Virgil Trucks and failed to hit safely over the last six innings. Zernial walked and scored on Charley Thompson's double to insure Trucks' fifth loss against five victories.

Art Ditmar, knocked out in the third inning of yesterday's 8-7 Tiger triumph, came back in relief today and got his ninth victory against 13 losses.

Operation Forces Cards' Smith Out

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Rookie catcher Hal Smith underwent an emergency operation for appendicitis early Thursday and will be out of the St. Louis lineup for "at least three weeks."

The team physician, Dr. I. C. Middleman, performed the operation and said it would be about the first of September before Smith could play again.

The scrappy little backstop was hitting .306 in his freshman season.

With Smith out of the lineup, the catching chores fall to veteran Walker Cooper and Ray Katt.

Giants Halt Phils' Drive

NEW YORK (AP)—The last-place New York Giants broke Philadelphia's six-game winning streak Thursday, 5-2, with an 11-hit attack that included two homers by Jackie Brandt and one each by Willie Mays and Bill White.

Brandt hit his seventh and eight of the year on successive times at bat in the fifth and seventh. Mays slugged his 18th in the third and White his 15th leading off the fourth. The other Giant run came in the fifth on Mays' double and Dusty Rhodes' triple. Mays' double knocked out loser Saul Rogovin, first of three Phil pitchers.

Joe Margoneri, young Giant left-hander, was rolling along with a five-hit shutout until the seventh when a single by Willie Jones and Andy Seminick's sixth homer broke his charm. After Margoneri walked pinch-hitter Roy Smalley and threw two balls to Richie Ashburn, he was relieved by Marv Grissom, who finished up.

The Phils had won 10 of their last 11 going into the final game of the series in their drive toward fourth place in the National League. A threat was nipped in the eighth when Gran Hamner beat out a bunt and Stan Lopata singled with none out.

Del Ennis lined out, Jones struck out and Grissom made pinch-hitter Marv Blaylock tap to Bill Sarni in front of the plate.

Piersall's Hit Sparks Bosox

BOSTON (AP)—Frank Sullivan's six-hit pitching, aided by Jim Piersall's vital two-run single, carried Boston to a 3-1 victory over Baltimore Thursday—the Red Sox' eighth triumph in nine games.

Ted Williams, on his best behavior for the second straight day, collected two singles, a walk and reached on an error. Williams was fined $5,000 Tuesday for a spitting episode.

Ted started off the Red Sox sixth, in which the team scored all its runs, with a single. An error and a walk preceded Piersall's decisive blow. Jackie Jensen came home with an insurance tally as Sammy White hit into a double play.

Sullivan achieved his elusive 10th victory on his fourth try. He has lost five. Big Sully fanned five and exhibited good control, yielding only one walk.

Boston got six hits too, but utilized them better. Loser Mike Fornieles was lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth and was succeeded by Erv Palica and Johnny Schmitz.

Zulueta Favorite In Garden Bout

NEW YORK (AP) — Despite Orlando Zulueta's upset victory over Ludwig Lightburn a month ago, the loser is favored to reverse the score in Friday night's 10-round lightweight match at Madison Square Garden.

The nationally televised (NBC radio and TV) contest will be the last from the Garden until Sept. 7 with the political conventions and out-of-town arenas filling the regular Friday schedule for three weeks. Ring time is 8 p.m., CST, with two judges and a referee scoring by rounds.

Steen Sees Good Hunting

Good hunting is in prospect for Nebraska in the coming fall, Director M. O. Steen of the State Game Commission predicted Thursday.

"Reports from the northern breeding grounds indicate that this year's supply of waterfowl is approximately the same as in 1955," he said.

He included pheasant and quail in his forecast for a good hunting season.

"Field studies of quail and pheasant production indicate improvement over 1955, especially for quail," he reported.

Steen said pheasant conditions are spotted, but on the statewide basis they have improved.

The Game Commission is scheduled to meet Aug. 18 to set up dates and regulations for the 1956 season.

Williamson Ousted In Junior Tourney

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass. — Bud Williamson of Lincoln was defeated by John E. Grubb, Rockville, Md., 4 and 3 Thursday in the second round of the National Junior Golf Tournament here.

Lincoln's other two entries, Charles Burda and Gary Gruenemeier, lost in the first round Wednesday.

Larry Klaus of San Antonio, Tex., is the new head trainer for the University of Wyoming teams.

York Set To Host Four-State Regional American Legion Baseball Tourney

YORK, Neb. (AP) — American Legion baseball champions from Colorado, New Mexico, Wyoming and Nebraska will meet in a four-state tournament here beginning Saturday, Aug. 18.

Winner of the York meet will enter the sectional tournament at Billings, Mont., later in the month. National finals will be at Bismarck, N.D.

Two of the contenders for the crown at York have already been chosen. For the third straight year the Kansas City Life team of Denver captured the Colorado crown while Carlsbad has repeated for the second straight year as New Mexico's champion.

First tournament game will be at 2.30 in the afternoon. A second game will be played Saturday night. The losers of the first two games meet Sunday afternoon, the winners Sunday night. Other games will be Monday and Tuesday nights. Should another game be necessary it will be played Wednesday night.

York has been host to regional tournaments in 1940, 1941, 1942, 1944, 1947, 1950 and 1953.

Walter and Wilbur Epke are co-directors of the tourney.

Phils Sign Outfielder

PHILADLPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies Thursday announced the signing of Bill Barnett, Clemson College outfielder, to a 1957 contract.

Barnett, who hails from Taylor, S. C., will be assigned to the Wilson, N. C., club of the Class B Carolina League.

Oklahoman Threat To Candea, Hopp

HOLDREGE (AP) — An Oklahoman is expected to present a serious challenge to the Southwest Open Sand Greens Golf Tournament supremacy held the past eight years by Dean Candea of North Platte and Wally Hopp of Hastings.

He is Jack Scroggins, an assistant coach at Lexington High School. Scroggins has captured three sand greens titles so far this summer and has broken one course record.

Candea will be trying for this third straight crown here, a feat never before accomplished in Southwest Open history. Candea, Hopp and the late Harold Fales of Kearney have failed in previous tries.

Tournament officials said the meet should draw more than 100 golfers. Director Harold Kenfield said first prize money had been sliced from $100 to $75, with more money added to slight prizes.

There will be 36 holes of medal play with a nine-hold qualifying round Saturday afternoon. The championship flight will open 27 holes Sunday. All other flights will play 18 holes.

Kenfield said a $100 prize was offered any golfer who breaks the course record, held by Ed Schoenthal of Fremont, formerly of Holdrege. He fired a 7-under par 29.

Of the active New York major league players Willie Mays holds the highest batting average for one season. He hit .345 in 1954. Brooklyn's Carl Furillo hit .344 in 1953.

Main Stem Mo. Reservoirs 'Better Off'

OMAHA (AP) — The end of the main 1956 water shortage accumulation season on the Missouri River found the main stem reservoirs much better off than they were a year ago.

The Reservoir Control Center in Omaha reported that the long-range outlook for 1956 inflow into the Missouri above Sioux City is 75 to 80 per cent of normal for this calendar year, compared to only two-thirds of normal last year.

The monthly report also showed that generation of power at the main stem plants — Garrison, Fort Randall and Fort Peck, attained a record high of 242,000,000 kilowatts hours in July, an increase of 18,000,000 kilowatt hours over the previous record set in May.

July also saw a new daily record of 8,445,000 kilowatt hours on July 24, when the demand soared to 419,000 kilowatts for the second consecutive day.

The geographic origin of the 1956 runoff of water varies considerably from that normally expected, the reservoir control center said.

The supply from the portion of the basin upstream from the Garrison Dam in North Dakota was 90 per cent of normal and the portion between Garrison and Sioux City was only 30 per cent of normal.

Precipitation was more than seasonally normal below Sioux City.

Ohio Man Wins $20 Wager And Loses His Life

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A husky, 25-year-old Dayton man won a $20 wager that may have cost him his life, Montgomery County Coroner Dr Robert E, Zipf disclosed

Dr Zipf's deputy, Robert A Clark, said Louis Angoff bet Allen Gradsky, owner of the local tavern, that he could drink 16 martinis within two hours

Clark said two witnesses told him Angoff drank the 16 martinis in one hour and 20 minutes. He said friends then took Angoff outside for some fresh air.

Angoff collapsed on the sidewalk and was dead on arrival at Grandview Hospital a short time later

Zipf said an autopsy showed the 220 pound Angoff had a blood alcohol content of 26 He said Angoff died of a heart attack, caused by a heart spasm

250 Farmers Attend Meet On Irrigation

. . . In Loup Area

ORD, Neb —About 250 farmers packed National Hall, 12 miles west of here, for a meeting on the new Twin Loups Reclamation District plan which eliminates the proposed Turtle Creek reservoir and adds most of the land in the area to the Twin Loups District.

Henry Lange of Ord, Twin Loups president, said the farmers attending, most of whom live in the Turtle Creek area, favored the plan.

Work will go ahead on it after 51 per cent of the landowners in the area sign up for irrigation.

Congressmen Attend

Sen Roman Hruska and Rep A L Miller spoke, along with Paul Harley, Loren Higgs and Fred Daubert of the Grand Island Reclamation office.

Seven members of the board of directors of the Twin Loups Reclamation District also were present

The new plan, outlined at the meeting, will irrigate some 60,000 acres in the district and about 30,000 supplemental irrigable acres near Fullerton and Genoa.

Don t miss it. News of friends on vacation, marriages, engagements, parties PTA notes and club meetings makes good reading in the "Sunday Journal and Star"

Steelmen, Alcoa Sign 3-Year Pact; Price Boost Set

NEW YORK (INS) — The United Steelworkers of America and the Aluminum Company of America signed a three-year, no strike contract Thursday, ending a nine-day old walkout of 18,000 workers.

Alcoa immediately announced a basic four-per cent increase in aluminum prices.

The new price will be 25 cents per pound for basic aluminum pig, effective immediately. The old price was 24 cents per pound.

The contract is similar to that negotiated recently between the steel workers union and the nation's steel industry

The pact signed Thursday calls for a total of 45 6 cents an hour in wage increases and other benefits over the three-year period.

The company announced that price adjustments would be announced shortly Steel companies announced price increases of an average of $8 50 per ton following the steel settlement.

Truman Urges Demos To Stand On Their '48 And '52 Civil Rights Platforms

CHICAGO (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman Thursday urged his fellow Democrats to stand on their 1948 and 1952 civil rights platforms—neither of which made any reference to public school desegregation or the Supreme Court.

Truman appeared before the Democratic National Convention's Platform Committee at a crowded, steaming session at which he interspersed criticism of the Eisenhower administration with advice to his party on the platform it will adopt next week.

Truman said a civil rights statement based on the recommendations of a commission he named in 1947 should be taken into account in writing that plank He said either the 1948 or 1952 party stands would satisfy him

In 1948, when Truman ran successfully for re election, the party endorsed his proposed legislative program. It included proposals for a Fair Employment Practices Commission as well as antilynching and antipoll tax legislation.

In 1952 the party went on record in general terms for equal voting, job and educational opportunities

The 1947 report called for safety and security of person, the right and privileges of citizenship, freedom of conscience and expression and equality of opportunity.

Truman said the 14th—equal protection under the law—Amendment to the Constitution "is the law of the land and should be enforced" He noted that it was adopted after the Civil War

Asked to expand his testimony to include specific recommendations—a move obviously inviting him to take a stand on the court's antisegregation order — Truman said he had nothing to add to his testimony

"Study the platforms of 1948 and 1952," he told the delegates "This committee is perfectly capable of writing a plank that will be fair to all of the people as the Constitution provides"

Truman's statement met a generally favorable response from Dixie delegates.

Sen. John Sparkman of Alabama, said that Truman's proposal to return to previous civil rights statements "sounded like moderation to me"

Sen Sam Ervin of North Carolina said the adoption of such a plank "wouldn't cause me to bolt." Ervin added

"They are stronger than I believe in but if a plank of that kind were adopted I believe the party can go away from here united and beat the Republicans in November."

Monroe Sweetland, Oregon national committeeman and an advocate of a strong civil rights plank, said he wouldn't be willing to stand on the 1948 or 1952 planks.

"Important things have happened since then," Sweetland said "We can't stand still on civil rights."

On other subjects Truman was asked by Rep John Moss of California for his opinion of the Republican campaign slogan of "peace, progress and prosperity"

Smiling broadly, Truman replied "The Republicans like to steal from us, don't pay any attention to them"

Delegate Richard S McKnight of South Wayne, Wis., asked which was more important from the farmer's standpoint—the type of farm law or type of administration.

Truman said that, of course a good administrator could make a good program of a bad law.

"But take a good law and a bad administrator— and that's a Republican—he'll make it a bad law"

Truman received a standing ovation from the crowded committee room, filled mostly with members of the committee and newsmen There was little room left for the public.

Lincoln Boy Is Killed In Gun Accident

A Lincoln boy was accidentally shot to death late Wednesday at the home of his grandfather in St Paul, Neb.

He was Wayne Allen Henderson, 9, only child of Mr and Mrs Wayne Henderson of 3410 No 53rd

County Attorney Dean R Armstrong and Sheriff Dan Schenck at St Paul called the shooting accidental Thursday after an investigation

Armstrong said late Thursday night that he "doubted" there would be an inquest He said he planned to wait until after the funeral to determine if an inquest would be held

Armstrong said young Henderson and his uncle, Danny Ross, 13, were crossing a barbed wire fence at the Ross farm, 4½ miles west of St Paul when the the accident occurred.

Danny Ross, Armstrong was told, had crossed the fence and the Henderson boy was just on the other side when a 22 caliber rifle discharged, striking the 9-year-old in the heart

Wayne's grandfather, Adam Ross, the only adult at the farm when the mishap occurred, took the boy to a hospital where a physician said death had been instant

Funeral services will be held Saturday at the Keating Mortuary in St Paul Burial will be in Lincoln Memorial Park.

Survivors include his parents, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs Adam Ross of St Paul, Mrs Kenneth Parker of Lincoln and Harley Henderson of Arkansas.

Memory Lapse

CHICAGO (INS) — Former President Harry S Truman apparently had a brief lapse of memory when he came down from his hotel suite to testify before the Democratic convention platform committee.

Truman showed up five minutes early for the meeting and was about to enter the committee hearingroom when he suddenly turned on his heels and went back upstairs to his presidential suite in the Sheraton-Blackstone Hotel

He came down 15 minutes later—this time with his wife, Bess, and an old friend, Perle Mesta.

Rails Higher As Stocks Move Up

NEW YORK (AP)—Rails were the heroes and metals the villains of Thursday's stock market rise, the third straight this week.

The market was higher from the start and looked as if it were really going places late in the afternoon when the carriers and selected issues spurted.

But in the final hour, steels, which had been ragged earlier, turned definitely downward. Coppers and other metals dipped suddenly.

Rails remained sturdily ahead, but among the major divisions they were practically alone. Market analysts have long hoped for a decided advance of the rails to confirm the upward march of industrials, but when the day came it was the industrials that failed to confirm the raise.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 40 cents to $190.50 with the industrials unchanged, the rails up $1.30 and the utilities unchanged.

Volume on this lively day was the best since June 8 with a turnover of 2,550,000 shares compared with 2,480,000 Wednesday.

Rails rose after the latest carloadings report showed a pickup despite the continuing effects of the steel strike. The decline of the steels came after recent advances and was a logical development based on profit taking.

The was nothing in the domestic copper future prices to account for the copper decline.

Relative calmness regarding the Suez Canal situation prevaded the markets.

In the American Stock Exchange prices were irregular on volume of 1,290,000 shares compared with 1,170,000 Wednesday.

Advertisement for Bids

The City of Lincoln, Nebraska will receive sealed bids for construction of Wells and Pump Houses in Ashland and Well Field Additions until 10 o'clock, A.M., Central Standard Time at the office of the City Clerk, Lincoln, Nebraska, on the 22nd day of August, 1956, at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud.

The Contract Documents, including plans and specifications, may be obtained at the office of the City Engineer and at the office of Harold Hoskins & Associates, Engineers, 1630 Que Street, Lincoln, Nebraska.

Each bid shall be accompanied, in a separate sealed envelope, by a certified check drawn on a solvent bank in the State of Nebraska, or a satisfactory bid bond with an authorized surety company as surety, in an amount not less than 5% of the bid and shall be made payable to the City Treasurer of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, as security that the bidder to whom the contract may be awarded will enter into a contract to perform the work in accordance with this notice, and give bond in the sum as hereinafter provided. Bid security accompanying bids not accepted shall be returned to the bidders. Bid security of the bidder to whom the contract is awarded will be returned provided and when said successful bidder executes the contract and files a satisfactory bond as hereinafter stipulated.

No bid shall be withdrawn after opening the bids without the consent of the City of Lincoln, for a period of 30 days after the scheduled time of closing bids.

The City of Lincoln reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to waive any informalities in bidding.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish a satisfactory performance bond in the sum of the full amount of the contract.

In general, the improvement on which bids are requested will require the following construction:

Twelve (12) gravel Wall Wells and nine (9) pumps, pump houses and accessories.

The Engineer's estimate of construction cost is $213,660.00

Dated at Lincoln, Nebraska this 18th day of July, 1956.

CITY OF LINCOLN, NEBRASKA
By: Theo. H. Berg, City Clerk.

Notice to Contractors

Sealed proposals will be received by the City Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, at the office of the City Clerk, up to 10 o'clock a.m., Central Standard Time, Wednesday, August 15, 1956, for the construction of the storm sewer in Storm Sewer Project No. 33-C-56, being in 63rd Street and Burlington Avenue to 66th Street and Kearney Avenue, in said City, according to the plans and specifications of the City Engineer on file in the office of the City Clerk.

Plans and specifications may be seen and blank proposals obtained in the office of the City Engineer.

The City Engineer's estimate of the cost of this construction work is $250,000.

Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check for $12,500.00, made payable to Frank J. Miller, City Treasurer, as a guarantee of good faith.

The City reserves the right to reject any or all proposals and to waive any defect in proposals.

THEO. H. BERG, City Clerk.

Help Wanted—Women 48
(Salaried Jobs)

An INTERESTING position

With the Want Ad Dept. of This Newspaper

Would you like to be a part of the fascinating field of newspaper work? This job is a combination of telephone work, public service and "saleswomanship." But it's NOT a dull, routine job! You can learn more about WHO is doing WHAT in WHICH field through this position than through any other job in town. You'll become a phone friend to many people by helping them with their individual problems — finding lost kitties, selling homes or boats, renting apts., etc.

The young lady we need must be 20 to 35, a high school graduate, be able to type, spell and punctuate correctly and do simple computation quickly. A clear, pleasant telephone voice is ESSENTIAL. Sales experience is helpful but not necessary if you enjoy working with people.

You will work 40 hours per week with Sunday and either Tues. or Thur. off. Your co-workers are a fine, congenial group. We work in a modern air-conditioned building and use the latest type equipment. Paid vacations and group insurance, of course.

Salary and commission make this position WELL above average and there is no limit to what a superior girl can earn.

If you have the above qualifications and want to find your niche in the advertising world in a specialized field, call Mr. Golding, 2-3331, for a personal interview X

Advertisement for Bids

Sealed bids for the construction of Auditorium for the Nebraska State Teachers College at Wayne, Nebraska will be received at the Office of the Secretary of the Board of Education of State Normal Schools, Room 1404, State Capitol Building, Lincoln, Nebraska, until 10:00 a.m. Saturday, August 25, 1956 and at that time will be publicly opened and read.

Separate bids will be received:

First—for the General Construction

Second—for the Heating, Ventilating and Plumbing

Third—for the Electrical Work

Proposal forms together with plans and specifications for the work may be seen at the office of the undersigned and copies may be secured by bona fide bidders at the office of John Latenser & Sons, Architects, 1307 Farnam Street, Omaha, Nebraska.

Bid bond, certified check, or cashier's check made payable to the order of the Board of Education of State Normal Schools, for not less than 5 per cent of the amount of the bid must accompany each bid. No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of 30 days after the date set for the opening thereof.

Each successful bidder will be required to furnish a Surety Bond signed by an approved surety company in an amount equal to 100% of his contract.

The right is reserved to waive informalities and to reject any or all bids.

E. ALBIN LARSON, Secretary
Board of Education of State
Normal Schools

Advertisement for Bids

The City of Lincoln, Nebraska will receive sealed bids for construction of Pipe Lines in Ashland Well Field Additions until 10 o'clock, A. M., Central Standard Time at the office of the City Clerk, Lincoln, Nebraska on the 22nd day of August, 1956, at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud.

The Contract Documents, including plans and specifications, may be obtained at the office of the City Engineer and at the office of Harold Hoskins & Associates, Engineers, 1630 Que Street, Lincoln, Nebraska.

Each bid shall be accompanied, in a separate sealed envelope, by a certified check drawn on a solvent bank in the State of Nebraska or a satisfactory bid bond with an authorized surety company as surety, in an amount not less than 5% of the bid and shall be made payable to the City Treasurer of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, as security that the bidder to whom the contract may be awarded will enter into a contract to perform the work in accordance with this notice, and give bond in the sum as hereinafter provided. Bid security accompanying bids not accepted shall be returned to the bidders. Bid security of the bidder to whom the contract is awarded will be returned provided, and when said successful bidder executes the contract and files a satisfactory bond as hereinafter stipulated.

No bid shall be withdrawn after opening the bids without the consent of the City of Lincoln, for a period of 30 days after the scheduled time of closing bids.

The City of Lincoln reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to waive any informalities in biddina.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish a satisfactory performance bond in the sum of the full amount of the contract.
